Section 1: Executive Summary

Mission

Roots Charter High School targets students who are at risk of academic failure in the greater West Valley City area and instills them with the knowledge, skills and ability to live healthy, productive and sustainable lives. Graduates are proficient in math and reading and well prepared for post-secondary education through authentic learning that develops ecological literacy, academic accomplishment, strong character, and a commitment to community.

Roots Charter High School is modeled after the Common Ground charter school located in New Haven, Connecticut. The founders of Common Ground acknowledged the fact that students who are at risk for academic failure are not connecting what they are learning in school with real life situations; in other words, they don't see value to traditional learning. Common Ground uses an urban farm setting with interdisciplinary classes to make learning meaningful and relevant.

The farm setting was chosen because, as explained by Common Ground, "On the farm, students face fundamental questions about life itself. A farm demonstrates the most basic connection all humans have to the land. Through direct experience, students observe the cycle of nutrients, the flow of energy, and the rewards of hard work. They care for plants and animals that in turn provide their nourishment. They are involved in matters of birth, life and death. They are responsible for the well-being of fellow creatures and develop motivation and responsibility through this relationship.

"Human understanding of the world is hindered by the fact that people are distanced, physically and psychologically, from their environment. This is especially evident in metropolitan areas where we face the stress, pollution, and economic challenges of urban life. Using a farm as the laboratory for education heals this disconnection. When working with food and the farm, students' natural curiosity about other organisms and how they survive leads to learning in environmental science, nutrition, the chemistry of their bodies, and the science of key global processes. Literature, history, and social science help students address questions provoked by the farm experience. The farm is a metaphor that connects hands-on experience to the larger context of human life.

"Running a farm requires discipline. Farm-work provides opportunities for practical skill development, including carpentry, landscaping, food production and food preparation. Farm work is also collaborative; it requires cooperation and coordination among the entire school community. Collaboration that results in life-giving resources can increase student self-confidence and efficacy, and lead to skills in self-reliance and community-building in any setting. Beyond formal academics, Common Ground provides students with habits of heart, mind and work which will be valuable for future careers and increased self-sufficiency in their adult lives.

“In every academic discipline, students become fluent in cogent questioning, clear expression and concrete problem solving. Three qualities of an educated person – a sense of wonder, intellectual curiosity, and critical thinking – are nurtured to enhance specific learning skills, the attainment of useful knowledge, and the confident application of academic expertise.” (Common Ground Chartering Document, New Haven, Connecticut, 1997).

Roots Charter High School will adopt the academic and farm-based relevant learning program utilized at Common Ground. The four pillars of character described in this document are unique to Roots Charter High School, and will be implemented and exemplified by all faculty, staff and students.

Roots Charter High School is shaped by an ecological framework derived from the basic premise of ecology: all living and non-living things on the earth are connected and interdependent. This framework guides our curriculum, making courses interdisciplinary. It guides our governance of the school and the way we view our learning community. Through the frame work of ecology, the school is collaborative, interdependent and connected to society at large. It brings relevance to education for students who otherwise might not stay in school.

Three basic principles make up the ecological framework:

A community is a group sharing common characteristics or interests and perceived or perceiving itself as distinct in some respect from the larger society within which it exists, where people, connected through their universal needs and aspirations, come together. Community is urgently needed in a time when alienation and detachment plague our youth, schools and society. Community emphasizes connections among individuals in their actions and consequences for those actions.

A farm in the city is an ideal context for studying connections. A farm demonstrates the most basic relationship humans have to the land. Students experience the cycles of nature and discover the rewards of hard work and collaboration. They care for plants and animals that, in turn, provide their nourishment. They are involved in matters of life, birth, and death. They are responsible for the well- being of fellow creatures and develop motivation and responsibility through this relationship.

Authentic learning based on meaningful tasks develops academic skills, personal responsibility and group collaboration. A student’s day at Roots Charter High School includes an extended, team-taught, interdisciplinary course that allows time for authentic learning: managing and caring for livestock, weeding a large plot or garden, analyzing the productivity of a beehive, constructing animal shelters, and learning outdoor survival techniques to be used on an excursion. Roots Charter High School stresses accountability and performance.

Vision

Roots Charter High School is based on the fundamental concept: you reap what you sow. Consequence Centered Framework is derived from this basic premise of the harvest and shapes Roots Charter High School's education. Our basic educational premise is that each of us is a product of what we sow or do not sow (choices leading to actions) and everything affects everything else (interconnection). The consequential dynamic is intrinsically interdisciplinary and empowers students to seek answers to essential questions, see their actions and choices in relation to the world, and grapple with big ideas. We explain Consequence Centered Framework through four points or pillars: choice, action, energy, and connections.

Choice is the first pillar of the Consequence Centered Framework. All choices have consequences. Learning to make choices is an important skill that we all must learn to take full advantage of the opportunities life has to offer. Choice leads to Action.

Action is the second pillar. Actions are the “sowing” that we do each day. Our action, or inaction, will determine and shape all that we reap or harvest throughout our life. All actions take energy, leading to the third pillar.

Energy is all around us; it is the consumable power that permeates everything. Energy is expendable and understanding the value and the consumption of it is essential to our lives. Our energy is consumed as we grow and develop our connections to our surroundings.

Connection is the fourth pillar. We are connected to everything that surrounds us: our environment our peers and our bodies. Through learning about these connections and learning to develop them, we become whole and form an understanding of how our consequential dynamic affects our world.

An essential and empowering part of a students' education is understanding how to control and develop these four pillars: Choice, action, energy and connection.

At Roots Charter High School, this Consequence Centered Framework provides the context for academic experience, producing students who understand the connections in the world, and have the skills, knowledge and ability to live by this understanding. In addition, our consequential framework guides school governance – the school will be run collaboratively and fosters the formation of a supportive, interconnected learning community.

Community is where people, connected through their universal needs and aspirations, come together. We envision a school where students' direct experiences lead them to understand the common truths among people rather than the differences which separate them. We envision a school where students use their minds and bodies to connect with human experience on the planet, experiences which transcend time and place.

Purpose

Roots Charter High School aims to improve student learning and provides an increased choice in learning opportunities.

Improve Student Learning: West Valley City is the second largest city in the state of Utah, with thirty percent of the population claiming Hispanic ethnicity (US Census Bureau, 2010). Unfortunately, with an average of only sixty-two percent of Hispanic students graduating from high school in the West Valley area (See Figure 1 in Section 2), there is an urgent and compelling need to help these students. Many of these students are also economically disadvantaged (See Figure 1 in Section 2), which increases their chances of not completing high school, which in turn dramatically decreases their chances of breaking out of poverty. These students need to find the relevance of education and be part of a caring community where they are able to prepare for college and life as confident, capable, and caring individuals.

Increased Choice in Learning Opportunities: Roots Charter High School is modeled after Common Ground Charter School, a successful farm-based school located in New Haven, Connecticut. Common Ground has had great success in not only increasing academic performance and high school graduation rates for at-risk students, but in 2012 nearly ninety-seven percent of graduates were accepted to college. This innovative school is located on a small farm setting and students spend time each day tending crops and livestock while participating in multidisciplinary taught authentic learning courses. Working on the farm is not to provide students with agricultural skills, but rather to create curiosity and a frame of reference that students can connect what they are learning to. This model makes the learning in the classroom meaningful and therefore helps students understand the need to obtain education.

New and Creative: As provided for in A53A-1a-501.9, Roots Charter High School qualifies for a charter under (ii) a charter school whose mission is to enhance learning opportunities for students at risk of academic failure. There are a great number of students in the target area who are not only at risk of academic failure, but are currently failing, as demonstrated by the high dropout rate of the Hispanic and economically disadvantaged student subgroups in the greater West Valley City area.

Currently there are no charter high schools in Utah that focus specifically on this target population. Newmann et al.¹ and Wehlage et al.² both show that dropping out of school is the final stage in a dynamic and cumulative process of disengagement. Roots Charter High School will help at risk students to remain engaged (or reengage), thus increasing their chances of high school graduation and post-secondary education. While there are programs within schools and various courses that may employ authentic learning there are no schools which use this method as its program base, nor are there any that combine the complete school program within a real setting (a farm at Roots Charter High School) for students to make connections with what they are learning in the classroom with.

Founding Board

Tyler Bastian is a high school career technology and character education teacher, who has been teaching for four years. As he has worked with students over the years he has observed the need for a school that helps students at risk of academic failure, particularly those of Hispanic ethnicity and/or those who are economically disadvantaged in the West Valley City area, where the dropout rate for these subgroups is unacceptably high. Tyler discovered from watching students that creating relevance is a key to education and searched to see if there were charter models in other states that were working for these at-risk populations. He found Common Ground and knew he needed to bring that model to this area. Tyler worked on a charter and looked for a Board of Trustees that shared his vision.

Joining Tyler on the Board at this time are Bion Wimmer, who is an attorney by trade, Travis Devere, who has a strong background in business and finance, Lincoln Fillmore, who has extensive experience in helping charter schools open, and Fernando Seminario, who has a passion for helping both at risk students as well as minority students. Luke Petersen has a master's degree in international food and agribusiness and runs a large farm and a profitable community supported agricultural program. He has a passion for helping youth learn the valuable life lessons taught so well in agriculture. All Board Members share the vision of helping all students, particularly those at risk of academic failure, to succeed in education using the farm-based authentic learning model.

Mission Specific Goals

Ecological Literacy: Ecological Literacy requires a broad understanding of the natural world and the relationships within it. Our students understand interdependence of all life forms, cycles of elements, nutrients and water energy flow, patterns and processes in ecosystems, and human dependence and influence on the environment.

Character

Roots Charter High School is committed to developing strong character in its graduates. Because our students are directly engaged with living things, they experience the direct consequences of their actions. They develop a respect for all living things, the willingness to protect and nurture what is important to them, and the confidence that they have skills and knowledge to be effective. They will be able to sustain their commitment over time – in other words they will be responsible citizens.

At the same time, students develop resilience in the face of disappointment and the ability to adjust to changing circumstances. These abilities foster a sense of pride and encourage students to take leadership in solving problems and in creating positive communities.

Commitment to Community

At Roots Charter High School, students learn the pride and dignity that comes from participation, responsibility, democratic values, collaboration, and social skills. They study and work in local communities, starting with the school and the natural community, and reaching out to the city, region and global arena. Students increase their confidence in being able to play a meaningful role in adult society and in restoring their neighborhoods to safe and healthy places. Because their education is connected to critical local issues, they participate in service activities that address neighborhood needs. Involvement in the community provides life-skills training to students, visibly improving living conditions in their neighborhoods, and fostering a sense of hope about the future of their living environment.

Section 2: Student Population

Roots Charter High School specifically targets students in the greater West Valley City area who are at risk for academic failure. Roots Charter High School uses the definition of students at being at risk for academic failure contained in Utah State Rule R277-708-1, which reads “At-risk of academic failure’ means students who are in public schools grades k-12 who have one or more of the following risk factors as defined under R277-708-1: (1) Low performance on U-PASS tests; (2) Poverty; (3) Limited English Proficiency; and (4) Mobility”. Data reveals that students of lower socioeconomic status and/or who are of Hispanic ethnicity have lower graduation rates and have lower levels of academic achievement, as illustrated in the charts below.

West Valley City is the second largest city in the state of Utah, with a large Hispanic population and a larger proportion of economically disadvantaged students than the state average, as illustrated below. The neighboring areas of Magna and Kearns share similar demographics.

Commented [JLL1]: Why only show math and ELA data and not science? Also, need to update the CRT data with 2013.

One of the characteristics of Common Ground that drew the attention of Roots Charter High School founders is the student body diversity, as Roots Charter High School is targeting at-risk students from diverse backgrounds. Eighty percent of students are of ethnic minority and sixty percent qualify for free or reduced lunch at Common Ground. Statistics in Utah, as well as nationally, show that students of Hispanic or Latino ethnicity are at a much higher risk for academic failure than their White and Asian peers, making the success of Common Ground even more significant.

The percentage of ethnic minorities is much higher at Common Ground than at the high schools located on the west side of the Granite District. The percentage of economically disadvantage students is higher at Common Ground, but is very close to that of Granger High School. Yet, the achievement data (see chart, next page) for students at Common Ground far exceeds that of the local schools. Roots Charter High School will implement the academic approach of Common Ground to close the achievement gap for students at high risk for academic failure in the greater West Valley City area.

School	% Ethnic Minority	% Free/Reduced Lunch (As of October 2013)
Common Ground	80%	60%
Granger High School	65.5%	61.4%
Cyprus High School	35.6%	41.0%
Hunter High School	50.2%	43.4%
Kearns High School	47.0%	47.2%

Figure 3

Based on the significantly lower graduation rates of Hispanic and economically disadvantaged students compared to the Utah State average, Roots Charter High School seeks to implement the program of Common Ground to increase graduation and post-secondary schooling for these students. With a graduation rate of 90.2% in 2012, Common Ground is proving its method successful for students of ethnicity and low socioeconomic status.

Commented [JLL2]: Is this the latest data Connecticut has?

The results Common Ground has been able to achieve are impressive, particularly over the past five years as they have refined their model. Between 2007 and 2011 Common Ground students doubled the percentage of students earning proficient scores on Connecticut state mandated tests, was the only high school in Connecticut to exit “in need of improvement” status under No Child Left Behind in 2009, made the largest academic gains of any high school in Connecticut in 2010, and then sustained those gains in both 2011 and 2012. The following chart illustrates the huge gap Common Ground is closing for students categorized as ethnic minority and/or economically disadvantaged.

Another accomplishment worthy of note at Common Ground is that in the graduating class of 2012 ninety seven percent of graduates had been accepted to college, which was the highest in school history. The acceptance rate for the previous five years was above ninety percent, showing how well the program is working. While this number cannot be compared with Utah, as no data regarding college acceptance is kept, there is certainly much to be learned from Common Ground.

Special Populations

Roots Charter High School recognizes and believes the educational program offered will attract a diverse student population, and is prepared to meet the needs of each student through authentic learning experiences, qualified teachers, and flexibility within the classroom to help each student succeed.

Roots Charter High School will comply with all requirements associated with special populations, including English Language Learners, students requiring section 504 modifications, special education students, and gifted and talented learners.

Gifted and Talented: The authentic learning base of Roots Charter High School provides great opportunities for gifted and talented students. Renzulli et al (2004) found authentic learning to be of great benefit to gifted and talented learners as it allows them to experience and solve real world problems at a higher level of thinking. It also allows them to take on the role of investigator, writer, artist or other real world professional in the course of research and learning.

Commented [JLL3]: Your reasoning in setting the goals as you have seemed reasonable in our meeting when you talked about how low surrounding schools perform. However, rereading this made it seem less reasonable to me. For example, the 70% acceptance letter goal seemed reasonable. But, if Common Ground has the results you describe right here, why do you not expect (given time) your school to see similar results? You may have good reason for this goal, but given how it reads right now, there is a disconnect. With how the goals are set up in the application, I would not recommend you setting a goal at the high end of what Common Ground has achieved. That may be your goal in that it is what you hope to achieve, but it does not need to be the goal put into your application. Instead, you should ask yourselves at what point would you have to say that Roots is not successfully realizing its mission and vision (at least for the area the goal represents). Given your description of how well Common Ground has performed and the purpose of the school, you need to make sure that you can say that Roots would be successfully realizing its mission and vision if it just met the goals as they are set. The answer very well may be that it would be (I imagine 70% is already high for your target population right now). But, I just want to make sure you are not only looking at how well or poorly surrounding schools have done, but also at your mission and vision and what you are trying to accomplish.

English Language Learners: Research (Cooperstein et al 2004, Milbrandt et al 2004, O’Neal 2004)³ has found authentic learning to be a successful mode of learning to help English Language Learners catch up to their peers. Additionally, the ability to create relevance to what is being taught increases student motivation to learn. Roots Charter High School will make sure necessary services are provided for all English Language Learners.

Students with Disabilities: Authentic learning is also very beneficial for students with learning disabilities, as the connection to real life is strong. Roots Charter High School will comply with all state and federal rules and regulations and provides necessary services for students with disabilities, as described in Section Sixteen.

At Risk Students: Roots Charter High School is specifically targeting students at-risk of academic failure to enroll. The robust authentic learning farm based program, including making the information taught relevant, has shown to be effective with at-risk populations at Common Ground, as discussed earlier in this section. In addition,

Economically Disadvantaged: Roots Charter High School anticipates a high proportion of students to come from economically disadvantaged homes. The school’s guidance counselor will be knowledgeable about community resources that may be of benefit to the students and families of Roots Charter High School. Students will be given a stipend given from the proceeds of farm products sold, as many students who drop out cite the necessity of a job as the reason for leaving school. Fee waivers will be offered, and Roots Charter High School will participate in the Federal Nutrition Program in order to ensure students who qualify for free and reduced lunch will continue to receive a nutritious meal while at school.

Admission Procedures

Roots Charter High School will advertise an open enrollment period of at least thirty days annually. If more students enroll than there are seats available, a lottery will be held. This lottery will be in compliance with all applicable state and federal guidelines, as presently constituted and as they are updated in the future. Current state law is UCA 53A-1a-506.

For those members of the community who are designated as founding members, their children may receive preferential enrollment. A founding member is defined as a person who has played a key role in the establishment of the school, and will be determined by the founding board prior to the lottery for the school’s first year. Section 4: Market Analysis

Location

West Valley City is the second largest city in the state of Utah, and home to one of the largest percentages of Hispanic residents, at 33.1%, while the Utah average is 13%. Graduation rates and standardized test results for the subpopulations of ethnic minorities and students who are economically disadvantaged are significantly lower than overall state averages, as illustrated in demographic data charts found in Section 2, Student Population.

Further, the Hispanic and economically disadvantaged subpopulations are higher in the greater West Valley City area than the State of Utah and Salt Lake County.

Given this demographic data, the West Valley City area has been determined as the best market for Roots Charter High School to locate, as there are large Hispanic and economically disadvantaged populations, as well as high drop-out rates, as illustrated previously in Section Two, Student Population.

Commented [JLL4]: Does this need to be in both places? Maybe, but just seems repetitive and doesn't add anything to the application.

The founders of Roots Charter High School have determined the school will need approximately ten acres to successfully run the program, and has identified the following criteria for possible locations:

- Any property considered will need to have relatively easy access to public transit, as many of our students will utilize it as their mode of transportation to and from school.
- The school building itself will be modest in construction.

- Existing agricultural zoning is preferred, but not necessary.
- Existing irrigation system or easy access to secondary water is preferred.
- Due to the small student body size and large amount of property required, a lower cost per acre is of high importance.

Based on the above criteria, the Roots Charter High School Board of Trustees has identified the following land parcels as possible locations for the school.

3700 S 6400 W West Valley City: This piece of ground has nineteen acres available with outbuildings, including a large barn with a new roof. The land is currently being leased by the owner for agricultural purposes. Secondary water is in place, and the owner is willing to sell or lease the ground to Roots. There is an express UTA bus that runs from the West Valley City Trax station with a stop two blocks from the school, and the property is easily accessed by vehicle.

4000 S 6000 W West Valley City: This is a nine and a half acre piece of ground that is currently being used for agricultural purposes, and has existing secondary water and outbuildings. There are two additional pieces of land totaling six acres adjacent to this particular property. Land value is $1.46 per square foot, and contact has been made with the owner who is willing to consider leasing or selling some or all of the property. The new Mountain View Corridor will run parallel to the farm, providing easy access for those commuting by car. The UTA express bus route 35 would drop students off five blocks from the school, and connects to the TRAX line at the West Valley hub. There is also a bus route that runs along 4100 South, but takes a longer and less direct route to and from the TRAX station. Roots Charter High School has made contact with the owner, who is willing to sell the property.

1415 W Crystal Avenue, West Valley City: This piece of property is 8.7 acres in size, and is zoned for agricultural use with secondary water present. The land value is $1.64 per square foot. The location is in close proximity to Granger High and has close access to TRAX and is just off of Redwood Road, providing good access for those walking or driving.

1363 W Crystal Avenue, West Valley City: This property is 8.41 acres in size, located next to the property above and has the same advantages. The cost for this land is estimated to be about $2.38 per acre.

3750 South 5800 West, West Valley City: This property is currently zoned and used for agricultural purposes, with outbuildings, secondary water, and the same excellent transportation abilities as option 1. Cost for this land is $2.24 per acre, and is 14.9 acres in size.

3100 West 2475 South, West Valley City: This piece of ground is not zoned agricultural, and secondary water is currently not on the property. There is easy freeway access via SR-201 and Bangerter Highway, and bus service running from the West Valley TRAX line. Property value is $1.26 per acres.

Market Context and Trends

Roots Charter High School will be located in the West Valley City area, which is in the Granite School District. It is a viable location for Roots Charter High School, as illustrated in previous charts as there is a high dropout rate among Hispanic and economically disadvantaged students and a large percentage of these sub-groups in the area. The school district instructional methods are not working for Roots Charter High School's target population, as evidenced by a dropout rate of about forty percent.

All properties identified as possible site locations are easily accessible through public transit, most within several minutes of Granger High School, which houses the highest populations of Hispanic and economically disadvantaged students in the target area. Roots Charter High School recognizes we are creating a niche school targeting a very specific group, and as such, is keeping the school size small. This also allows for a more personal educational experience, something that is lacking in the very large high schools in the Granite School District.

Competitive Advantage

Roots Charter High School provides students at risk for academic failure with a proven model of authentic instruction that simultaneously prepares them for college and a successful life after high school. Common Ground in New Haven, Connecticut has been particularly successful helping students of minority and economic disadvantage not only graduate from high school but go on to college. This is a result that the local schools have not been able to achieve, but one Roots Charter High School believes can be accomplished using the Common Ground model.

Outreach

Roots Charter High School will use both passive and active means of recruiting students and families to the school.

Active Outreach: Roots Charter High School will work with the Hispanic community to identify and approach students at risk and their families about the academic program and benefits available to students. This includes having a member of the Hispanic community who is well connected and respected on the Board of Trustees, who can serve as an initial liaison to the community. Roots Charter High School will also try to work with the Granite School District to build a good working relationship and provide information about the program to students known to be at risk for dropping out or for whom guidance counselors see the benefits of the program. The school will have open houses where parents and students can come to learn about the program, meet the staff, and discuss individual student needs and the benefit of Roots Charter High School in meeting those needs.

Passive Outreach: Roots Charter High School may use online advertising, flyers in libraries, grocery stores, community centers, newspaper advertisements and public announcements on the radio and/or television. A website about the school, its mission and application procedures, as well as contact information will also be constructed and maintained. In order to target those who may be seeking this type of charter school education, contact information will be placed on the State Charter Schools website and brochures will be distributed to other charter schools in the area, in hopes they will disseminate the information to interested students and parents. Contact will also be made with groups who support educational choice, requesting they distribute information about the school.

Section 5: Capital Facility Plan

Building

Roots Charter High School will construct a facility of approximately 15,000 square feet, which will include 10 general use classrooms, a multipurpose cafeteria/gym, a science lab, music room, and art room. Computers will be mobile labs that can be moved from room to room. General office and work areas will be conveniently placed in the facility. The campus will also include a greenhouse that may or may not be attached to the school building. As the school and grounds are developed, out buildings to store farm equipment, tools, and possibly animals will be constructed.

The founders have looked at constructing the school from recycled shipping containers, with a cost of approximately $1,000,000. This building can be constructed in approximately 100 days, and is in line with the principle of being good stewards of the environment, as embraced by Roots Charter High School. The Waldorf School of Orange County was the first such constructed school in the United States, and took 99 days to construct.

Another facility option is the use of portable classrooms for either permanent or temporary use.

A traditionally constructed school building is an option for all of the locations, but would either be built during the first operational year by a developer or after three to four operational years when the school is able to qualify for tax exempt bonds or a USDA loan.

Contingency

If Roots Charter High School is unable to construct a facility before school opening, portable classrooms will be utilized. The cost to move and install would be between $35,000-$40,000 dollars, and monthly lease payments would be approximately $6,000. An RFP will be issued for a developer upon approval to purchase and make necessary improvements to the land. The portable classrooms may or may not be paid for by the developer, depending on how the school decides to proceed with a long term facility.

Financing

Roots Charter High School has received a letter of agreement from a company that purchases charter school receivables that would allow the school to borrow the necessary capital to place the portable classrooms on ground purchased by a developer if need be. It is likely that a developer will build a shipping container type building, install portables permanently, or construct a traditional building, which Roots Charter

High School will lease with the intent of purchasing using tax-exempt bonds issued through the State Charter School Finance Authority or a USDA loan.

Section 6: Detailed Business Plan and Budget

Roots Charter High School's board will ensure that the school's operations are operated efficiently, according to applicable laws, within the board-adopted budget, and in a way that achieves the outcomes and mission established in this charter application. The school's budget, short of this charter, is the clearest and most relevant statement about the board's priorities. The board will ensure that the budget and all operations reflect the school's priorities and fulfill its mission.

Planning Year

Revenue

Roots Charter High School will apply for a state startup grant and loan that will compensate employees and service providers who provide the startup services to get the school going and to procure the academic and agricultural equipment needed to operate a school with a working farm in the first school year. It is anticipated that the school will have about $300,000 in cash to make such purchases and engage needed personnel.

Planning Year Salaries

Roots Charter High School will employ (or otherwise compensate through an employee leasing or service arrangement) the following employees during the planning year from approval of the charter to the beginning of the first operational year:

- A full-time school director
- A full-time school secretary and student records manager

In addition to these employees, the school will also use the following in a purchased services arrangement:

- Business management services on a delayed payment plan
- A building officer responsible to oversee construction and facility compliance
 - To procure business services (and all other services) Roots will follow state purchasing rules and its own finance policies adopted consistent with those rules and included with this charter application. Because Roots' board includes a board member that also provides business services as his profession, Roots and its Board will take steps outlined in state rule to ensure that the procurement of such services is consistent with policy and law. Specifically, the school will:
 - Issue an RFP for business services that includes objective criteria by which proposals will be judged and a winning proposal selected

- Exclude any potentially conflicted board member from reviewing any proposals, participating in the discussion regarding those proposals, or voting to select the winning proposal
- Keep complete records and minutes of all related activity to be available for inspection by the authorizer and the public
- Enforce the school's Conflict of Interest Policy in this and all other aspects of operation

The position of farm director in the first year, when no actual farming takes place, will be filled by a volunteer board member.

Other Planning Year Expenses

During the planning year, the school will have other expenses for supplies, computers, procurement services, that are projected at $35,000 for agricultural equipment (including a truck, shed, and farm tools) and basic administrative equipment. Most academic equipment will be procured in the first operational year with ongoing operational funds and round two of the school startup grant.

Operational Years

Enrollment

Roots Charter High School under this application will have capacity for 300 students, generating revenue of just over $1.3 million. This is a conservative number as it does not include other funding streams that the legislature institutes each year (such as Online Testing funding, in place for this year but not on the funding worksheet).

Revenue

In addition to the state funding number above, Roots Charter High School also assumes that it will qualify for federal revenue at an average amount for schools of similar size. The number of $66,000 estimated in the budget is the result of an analysis of first-year charter schools of similar size in fiscal years 2011 and 2012 and from schools of a similar size and demographic profile. Additionally, the school will generate about $50,000 in revenue from its Community Supported Agriculture program.

Lunch revenue assumes participation of 90% of the student body daily in the lunch program, with 50 percent of those students being on free or reduced lunch, resulting in a mix of federal funding and local funding from direct sales of lunch to students.

Other local revenue assumptions:

- Student activities will generate average annual revenue of $20 per student in admissions to activities and events

- The school's parent organization will be able to raise an average of $100 per student per year in its fundraising activities, donations (including box tops, direct cash, etc.) and sales of school products for total revenue of $32,500

Enrollment increases in year two by 25%, with state, local, and federal funding (except for one-time startup funding) commensurate with enrollment.

Non-Payroll or Service Expenses

Technology: The budget includes $200 to purchase internet connected computers for every pair of students at the school. This large investment will also require an investment in the school's infrastructure of $10,000 for wireless arrays, filtering, servers, and other network equipment. An additional $5,000 is budgeted for administrative computers and $10,000 for faculty computers.

Furnishings and Fixtures: The budget includes expenses of $125 per student for desks, chairs, filing cabinets, storage, and other classroom equipment.

In year two, the startup costs FF&E reduce, but continue at a replacement rate and to provide funding to newly enrolled students. Technology costs repeat in year two as a use for startup funds and to build out the school's technology profile according to this charter.

Occupancy of facilities: The school's facility will be inexpensive compared to schools of similar size, but the budget calls for 28% of state revenue for the costs of occupancy, including utilities.

Curriculum and classroom materials – The budget includes $250 per student for textbooks and curriculum supplies. (Some of this money may be spent on Educational Services as the school purchases online instruction programs from other accredited public schools. In no case will the school outsource the education of students to a non-accredited third-party provider to be educated off campus. All education will take place at Roots' campus and be overseen by Roots' faculty.) Basic instructional supplies of markers, paper, pencils, and other basic classroom needs are budgeted at $20 per student for the year. Future classroom supplies continue at that pace, while curriculum materials are anticipated to require replacement every two years, which amount is included in year two of the attached budget.

The school also anticipates spending an average of $15 per student to start a library collection of in the first school year. The school also anticipates purchases of $5,000 for basic facility maintenance equipment, including vacuums and other cleaning tools. Utilities are anticipated at $15,000 per year, and custodial supplies budgeted at $20 per student ongoing.

Payroll, Benefits, and Purchased Services

Instruction:

Teachers: The board may, prior to opening, adopt a salary range schedule. While teachers will be hired at various salaries depending on education and experience, this budget anticipates an average teacher salary of $38,000, which is consistent with the average salary of startup schools with similar grade configurations in Utah. $15,000 has been budgeted for professional development in the first and second operational years to provide the training teachers need to begin and implement the program successfully.

Paraprofessionals: In the first year, the school will hire one part-time paraprofessional per teacher to assist teachers, serve as on-call substitutes, and provide special education services to students. Spread between the first and second years (because fiscal years begin on July 1), some paraprofessionals will work an extended year to facilitate extended year instruction, mentoring, tutoring, academic coaching, and farm-level maintenance during the summer season.

Support Services: Roots Charter High School will have a full counselor for its student body than is required by law. This budget calls for a full time counselor at a FTE salary of $45,000. The school's budget calls for a half-time librarian paid on the same salary schedule as teachers. The school will also invest in student support services, including outsourced special education services for speech and occupational therapy.

Administration: Roots Charter High School will have one school director at a salary of about $75,000, plus a part-time Farm Director with a FTE salary of $50,000. Additionally, the school will have two secretaries/receptionists with an average salary of $30,000. The school may either contract out for business services or hire a business administrator. For purposes of this budget, the assumption is that an on-site business manager will be retained through a service provider, at a cost of $45,000, which will replace the cost of a business office staff at the school, including their benefits. An additional $20,000 per year is budgeted for outsourced technology services.

Operations and maintenance: Roots Charter High School will hire a building maintenance manager at a salary of about $32,000 per year with additional support of part-time custodial staff who will work part time at a rate of about $9 per hour. Three percent raises are anticipated for these and all employees going into year two.

Food Service: The school will likely not have kitchen facilities on-site and anticipates contracting with the school district (as several charters in the area do) for food services at a cost consistent with sales and state and federal support.

Benefits: Full-time employees will be eligible to participate in the school's medical, dental, vision, and other benefit plans. The cost to the school of these plans is budgeted at an average of 10% of salaries per year in year one, rising to 12% in year two. Roots does not anticipate participating in the State Retirement System, but will have a robust retirement program, which is anticipated to cost 4% of total salaries.

Audit and Controls

Roots Charter High School's Board is responsible to ensure that the school complies with all state-mandated reports and deadlines and instituting proper controls to mitigate risk factors present when dealing with public money. As required by law, Roots Charter High School will contract with an independent auditing firm to conduct an annual independent audit at the end of each fiscal year. The budget includes $3,000 for this and related services, including an audit of enrollment on October 1 of the first year, increasing to $11,000 in year 2. The audit report will be delivered to both the USOE and the Utah State Auditors' Office by November 30 each year in compliance with state requirements.

The board will adopt a budget each year by June 30 and monitor the school's financial performance related to that budget at its regular board meetings. The board may adopt a revised budget at any time during the year (again, before June 30) if actual expenses vary from the budget by more than five percent.

The board will ensure that all finance policies are adopted consistent with state law, including regular board and administrative oversight along with sufficient segregation of duties to limit the potential for fraud. Board finance reporting will include board review of all reports submitted to the state. The school will follow purchasing policies, and school finance policies will be reviewed each year to ensure that they comply with any legislative changes that may occur from time to time. The school will follow procurement code related to education service providers, building development and land acquisition, and all other purchases falling within the scope of state procurement code.

Contingency Budget

In case enrollment is below the board's budgeted expectation, this application includes a contingency budget that assumes only 75 percent of enrollment capacity is filled. Changes from the full enrollment are detailed below:

- Revenue falls consistent with enrollment, including a higher-than-likely drop in state funding. Local and federal sources that had been calculated on a per-student basis fall consistent with enrollment.
- The number of teachers falls from 9 to 8. Because teacher staffing levels cannot follow enrollment changes on a purely consistent basis, the larger staff reductions come in paraprofessionals, which drop from ten to five, with further reduced hours. Staffing levels for the special education services will not be affected, so general education paraprofessional support will be cut to very low levels. Paraprofessional support will cease except for special education support.

- The school will reduce its counselor and librarian hours, still complying with state standards, with the librarian position filled by an hourly clerk rather than an on-site certified librarian.
- Administrative salaries and hours will be reduced, notably the Farm Manager will be reduced to part-time, while still fulfilling the school's mission. Administrative services for business and technology support will be reduced also.
- Maintenance staff will be slightly lower at a slightly lower rate of pay and fewer hours.
- Retirement program will be delayed by six months.
- More employees will be part-time, reducing the cost of medical benefits.
- Professional development is protected as a key part of developing faculty with the school's unique focus and mission.
- Technology and curriculum purchases are reduced consistent with enrollment half
- Benefit increases will be passed on to employees in year two
- Minor other budget and equipment lines are reduces commensurate with enrollment

The contingency takes into account things that are unlikely to change with enrollment (occupancy, professional development), protects as possible things that are core to the mission (supplemental services, technology) and maintains adequate reserves to continue operations and build financial security.

The Farm

Using the Community Supported Agriculture Program, the Roots Charter High School farm will be self-supporting. The budget calls for $50,000 to run the farm, and is covered in the operational costs. It is anticipated, based on CSA shares the farm will bring in $85,500. Board member Luke Peterson has analyzed these numbers and is confident the farm can sustain itself (see Section 9 for additional CSA description). Following is a breakdown of a moderate-sized CSA. Not all line items are relevant for roots (i.e. housing), but shows that a CSA can be profitable. Roots' CSA will be smaller, and will therefore have lower overhead costs.

Section 7: Fiscal Procedures

Roots Charter High School will incorporate the following fiscal procedures to ensure that the School's assets are used for approved purposes. The fiscal procedures are categorized into financial reporting procedures and internal control policies.

Financial Reporting Procedures: Roots Charter High School will follow and employ Generally Accepted Accounting Procedures as they apply to charter schools. The school will use a calendar for financial reporting, budgeting, and appropriations consistent with the statutes and administrative rules that apply to public school finances. All budget proposals and amendments will be prepared by the business office and school administration and presented for board consideration in open and public board meetings. Please see the finance calendar below.

As a non-profit corporation operating under a charter granted by the State Charter School Board and consistent with statute, only Roots Charter High School has any responsibility to meet its financial obligations and commitments. Neither the chartering entity nor the state, including an agency of the state, is liable for the debts or financial obligations of the charter school or persons or entities that operate the charter school.

The school has adopted purchasing policies that comply with State of Utah procurement policies outlined in Utah Code 63G-6 and Administrative Rule R33, or more stringent standards developed by the school's board from time to time. These policies will include following all state standards for facility planning and construction and other high value purchases and expenditures, including any service agreements related to school operation or education. All contracts for facilities or financing will be submitted to the State Charter School Board for review and advice prior to Athenian entering into any such contract or agreement.

Complete Finance Policies are included in this application as Attachment C.

Calendar

- Draft budget for upcoming fiscal year prepared in April by business office using current funding formulas from the recent legislative session.
- Draft budget reviewed and amended by the board in May.
- Final budget approved by the board in June.
- Budget reviewed and amended, if necessary, in November after the official student count and updated revenue estimates.
- Budget reviewed and amended, if necessary, in February after the mid-year summary updates from USOE's finance office.
- Budget amended, if necessary, in June and submitted to the state as required consistent with actual expenses and revenue.

- Board will review monthly financial statements including Profit and Loss, Balance Sheet, and Bank Reconciliations.

Section 8: Organizational Structure and Governing Body

Roots Charter High School is a teacher-run school. The faculty collaborates on curriculum development, student scheduling and all aspects of school management. Teachers actively support each other's professional development through planning, reflecting and critiquing. A faculty that is supported and inspired by one another is able to create a learning community that promotes academic accomplishment. When teachers change teams three times a year, the school norms and the school culture are transmitted, especially to new faculty.

The faculty (School Planning and Management Team) is the decision-making body of the school. The school administration and faculty by consensus hires and fires its members with Board approval. A committee of students, parents and teachers conducts the final interviews with teaching candidates and makes recommendations. The faculty also determines the procedures and processes to implement the policies set by the Board of Directors. The faculty receives training in child developmental pathways and in principles of consensus, collaboration and no-fault. The goal of the group process is to keep the needs of children as the active priority and to focus on dialogue rather than debate. The Parent Team involves parents in every level of school activity.

Student input into school-wide decision making occurs through the Progressive School Meeting. Each guidance group (about 20 students) sends a representative to the meeting to present their proposal on a given issue. The representatives, with a faculty advisor, share the proposals and come up with a plan acceptable to all. This plan is submitted to the faculty meeting for approval or adjustment. The representatives then meet to hear the faculty responses and discuss their implications. Then they return to their guidance group to explain the new policy or procedure.

Board of Trustees: The Board of Trustees governs Roots Charter High School. The Board will have no fewer than three but no more than nine members. The founding Board, consisting of the members listed in this application, will govern the school according to the Bylaws until the school opens. Within the first school year, the Board will include one member elected by the parents at the school. Should this Board structure be incompatible with any future statute or rule governing Utah Charter Schools, the Board will amend its bylaws, charter, and/or board makeup consistent with such changes.

The Board will follow a Policy Governance model. Operational and management decisions and strategies will be left largely to the Administrative Leadership Team, which includes the Commandant of Cadets, the Academic Director, and Finance Officer. The Board will interact directly with parents and other stakeholders when developing policy, hearing complaints alleging violations of policy or when reviewing the school director's performance through surveys and verbal comment. Otherwise, communication from the school to all stakeholders will be through the school director.

Responsibilities of the Board of Trustees may include but are not limited to:

- Protect the legal interests of Roots Charter High School
- Determine the vision/mission and set policy
- Exercise sound legal and ethical practices and policies
- Advocate good external relations with the community, school districts, media, parents and students

Meetings will be guided by an agenda, to a) discuss the School's operations and hear reports and updates from board members and school administrators, b) consider and adopt policies, c) provide oversight of the school performance and d) consider requests and concerns from parents, students and teachers. A simple majority vote of the total board membership constitutes action by the Board of Trustees, except as noted in the Bylaws. The Board of Trustees may not act unless a quorum of board members is present.

Sub Committees: The Board of Trustees may, at its discretion, appoint and delegate special task forces or committees or the School Director to investigate and research specific items related to school policy, procedure, programs and curriculum and make recommendations to the Board for potential action.

Name: Travis DeVere

Role with school: Board Member/Treasurer

Expertise: Finance/Investment/Corporate Partnership

Statement of Intent:

I am excited to be involved in the application for Roots Charter High School in West Valley City. I intend on serving as a board member to the school. I am anxious to provide any insight from my experience in the financial services industry to help in whatever way is necessary. I am excited for the vision and focus of the school to mirror classroom education with hands-on agrarian economics and education.

Not-for-Profit History:

I have been a scouting volunteer for almost a decade working with teen-aged young men in Utah. I have served in local church groups. I served two-years as a full-time volunteer church representative. I have always been involved in serving in at least one non-profit role.

Throughout my professional career, I have participated in and have seen how partnerships between for-profit corporations and non-profit service providers benefit communities and stakeholders and make good economic sense for all groups involved. In my professional career I have worked with non-profit organizations like The Huntsman Cancer Institute, Junior Achievement and the United Way.

Employment History:

I am currently a sales manager for a construction materials company. Prior to that, I worked in commercial banking and investment banking for almost a decade with JP Morgan Chase Bank, NA and its' predecessor banks.

I reviewed and approved credit requests for business organizations including educational facilities to borrow money for capital expenditures (land acquisition and real estate construction or financing) and to fund operating expenses.

I also spent time in my career as a financial analyst where I reviewed the financial statements of organizations and made recommendations concerning their abilities to operate within their budgets and repay liabilities.

I also own and operated a consulting company where I provide financial analysis and credit risk analysis to businesses and provide capitalization consulting on how to best manage the financial tools of businesses.

As a commercial banker at JP Morgan Chase I consistently ranked in our “President’s Club” group. My last two years at JPM I finished #2 and #5 in the nation out of approximately 800 bankers. I participated in the Relationship Manager Leadership Team and travelled nationally and provided training to new hires and during sales and production meetings.

I also formerly held investment licenses and provided investment advice to consumers while working in retail banking early in my career.

Education History:

I have a finance and business management degree from Weber State University. While enrolled at Weber State University, I was part of the Wall Street Fellows group, a small scholarship group in the business school that at one time traveled to New York and Connecticut to work with investment firms that managed multiple endowments for Weber State University. I graduated with honors and was on academic scholarship during my time at Weber State University.

Statement of Intent:

I am excited to be a key part in the founding of Roots Charter High School. I am a high school career technology and character education teacher and have been teaching for four years. As I have worked with students over the years I have observed the need for a school that helps students at risk of academic failure, particularly those of Hispanic ethnicity and/or those who are economically disadvantaged in the West Valley City area, where the dropout rate for these subgroups is unacceptably high. I know from watching students that creating relevance is a key.

Except as provided in Section 5.3, termination of any such action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not of itself create either a presumption that such person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the Corporation or, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, a presumption that such person had reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful.

Section 5.02 Indemnification Against Liability to Corporation. No indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which a person covered by Section 5.01 shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his or she duty to the Corporation unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action, suit or proceeding was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of liability but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses which such court shall deem proper.

Section 5.03 Indemnification in Criminal Actions. No indemnification shall be made in respect of any criminal action or proceeding as to which a person covered by Section 5.01 shall have been adjudged to be guilty unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or proceeding was brought shall determine upon application that, despite the adjudication of guilt but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is entitled to indemnification for such expenses or fines which such court shall deem proper.

Section 5.04 Other Indemnification. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person may be entitled under the Articles of Incorporation, any agreement, any other provision of these bylaws, vote of the disinterested Trustees or otherwise, and any procedure provided for by any of the foregoing, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office.

Section 5.05 Period of Indemnification. The repeal or amendment of all or any portion of these bylaws which would have the effect of limiting, qualifying or restricting any of the powers or rights of indemnification provided or permitted in this Article shall not, solely by reason of such repeal or amendment, eliminate, restrict or otherwise affect the right or power of the Corporation to indemnify any person, or affect any right of indemnification of such person, with respect to any acts or omissions which occurred prior to such repeal or amendment.

Section 5.06 Insurance. By action of the Board of Trustees, notwithstanding any interest of the Trustees in such action, the Corporation may, subject to Section 5.08, purchase and maintain insurance, in such amounts as the Board may deem appropriate, on behalf of any person indemnified hereunder against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in his or her capacity of or arising out of his or her status as an agent of the Corporation, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under applicable provisions of law. The Corporation may also purchase and maintain insurance, in such amounts as the Board may deem appropriate, to insure the Corporation against any liability, including without limitation, any liability for the indemnifications provided in this Article.

Section 5.08 Limitation on Indemnification. Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, the Corporation shall neither indemnify any person nor purchase any insurance in any manner or to any extent that would jeopardize or be inconsistent with qualification of the Corporation as an Corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or would result in liability under Section 4941 of the Internal Revenue Code.

Section 9: Comprehensive Program of Instruction

Educational Program

The instructional approach at Common Ground that will also be employed by Roots Charter High School is authentic learning taught by a multidisciplinary team. This requires that all learning is real, relevant, and meaningful. Courses at Common Ground are taught by a multidisciplinary team of teachers, so students are not working on skills in isolation. The multidisciplinary teaching approach revisits a concept or skill from different perspectives, which deepens understanding, and can also make the curriculum more coherent and meaningful from the learner's point of view (Building the Curriculum 3: A Framework for Learning and Teaching, Scottish Government, 2008). Effective interdisciplinary learning encompasses the following elements:

- Can take the form of individual projects or longer courses of study.
- Is planned around clear purposes.
- Is based upon experiences and outcomes drawn from different curriculum areas or subjects within them.
- Ensures progression in skills, knowledge and understanding.
- Provides opportunities for mixed-stage learning which is interest-based.

Benefits of authentic learning taught in a multidisciplinary approach include the following (Scottish Government, 2008):

- Learners are motivated and involved; they demonstrate an inquisitive attitude.
- Learners develop confidence in facing challenges, both intellectual and practical.
- Learning is connected and directly related to real-life experiences.
- Learners work individually and collaboratively.
- Allows for more in-depth exploration of topics, issues and problems within and across subject areas and disciplines.
- Enables the understanding of different perspectives across subject areas and disciplines.
- Makes learners want to understand the different curriculum areas in greater depth.
- Promotes critical thinking by supporting learners to:
- Grasp main ideas and consider different ways of working across subjects and disciplines
- Compare and contrast what is learned in different subjects and disciplines
- Identify the appropriate knowledge and skills needed to investigate a particular issue or problem

- Bring together information and ideas from different subjects and disciplines, consider alternative ways of doing things or alternative solutions, predict outcomes and explain their approach.
- Practice critical literacy skills in context.
- Develop skills for learning, life, and work.

The farm setting of the school provides an environment where students can connect what they are learning with what they are doing and fosters curiosity so students begin to ask questions that result in a desire to learn.

Supplemental Curriculum

Roots Charter High School has not selected any specific supplemental curriculum to be used at the school. However, all electives planned are built around the farm, allowing students to continually employ authentic learning through working on the farm. Any additional courses added in the future will need to support the mission of helping students prepare for college through learning that is relevant.

Methods of Instruction

The use of authentic learning instruction has been shown to be effective⁴ for students of all subpopulations, but particularly for those who are at risk for academic failure. The farm provides the setting for authentic learning to occur. Teachers will work together to help students see how various skills and information tie together across the various subject areas. If any courses are offered using online instruction, they will be obtained through other accredited public schools. In no case will the school outsource the education of students to a non-accredited third-party provider to be educated off

Incorporation of the Farm in the Daily Schedule

The work of a farm is year-round, not just during the summer months. There are critical planning and preparatory tasks that take place in late fall, winter, and early spring. Below is a brief synopsis of the farm tasks needing to be completed over the course of the school year. Roots will implement a summer program to keep the farm running in the summer, as described below. Please note that the farm manager in the budget is a twelve month position. This person will be responsible for running the farm year-round.

August to October

August and September continues harvesting time for the students. The days consist of weeding, harvesting, and cleaning up the gardens used for warm season crops. Preparation is also started for spring planting. At the end of September students begin selling pumpkins, which continues through the end of October. September through October is when seeds are harvested for planting the following year. Cold crops such as lettuce, spinach, broccoli, cauliflower, cabbage, and other greens can be grown through November without cover, and through December using high tunnels.

November to March

In November seeds are dry and can be organized and prepared for storage until spring. Soil checks are conducted in November and December. Students begin to plan out what soil amending will take place over the winter and in early spring, working heavily with the plant and soil classes. After Holiday break the students are in full swing to prepare all the data to then hand it off to the Second Semester to crunch and begin planning for spring planting. January and February students analyze plant yields and all data to determine what will be planted. March work begins in greenhouse and extends to spring. Also begin to implement some of the soil amending procedures. Cold crops can be grown in greenhouses, high tunnels, or cold frames and can be used in farm-to-school programs, sold, or donated to charity.

April-June

Students wrap up soil preparation and planting and weeding begin. Harvesting of early crops such as peas, lettuce, spinach, broccoli, cauliflower and cabbage begins.

Summer

During the Summer Program, Roots will employ a minimum of twenty-five students of the school to help run the farm while school is not in session. This program will be called Roots Youth Employment Program (RYEP). They will grow flowers and mixed vegetables for market and for Roots Charter High School's CSA program (Community Supported Agriculture). Youth will apply for positions, including four Roots Peer Crew Leader (PCL) positions working directly with the new RYEP summer crew and two farm assistants who will work directly with our Farm Manager. The pillars of the school (Choice, Action, Energy and Connection) are integrated into all aspects of RYEP work.

This program will include leadership seminars and employment training. It will also have available tutoring to catch students up in all core subjects. The program will go from April until October. While school is in session they will receive leadership training and employment skill training as well as help maintain the school grounds. During summer break the students will help manage and deliver CSA shares, maintain school grounds and tend the animals and gardens. The program will be paid for by farm proceeds. Title I money will be used to support the tutoring program.

Roots Community Supported Agriculture Program

Roots' Community Supported Agriculture (RCSA) is a relationship of mutual support and commitment between Roots Charter High School and community members who pay the school an annual membership fee to cover the production costs of the farm. Members then receive a weekly share of the harvest during the growing season. This arrangement guarantees that Roots' Charter High School farm will have the financial support it will need.

The goals of the Roots Charter High School CSA are as follows:

- Provide fresh produce for the community
- Fund the farm production each year
- Provide a source of community outreach and advertising

The shares will be competitively priced at $285.00, which provides a share for the purchasing family and a share for a low-income family in the community. ($100 of the cost will be considered a tax deductible donation). The farm in its first year will be able to support 300 shares, which would bring $85,500 in revenues into the school. The budget calls for $50,000 to run the farm. In the event that all shares are not sold or there is surplus, the produce will be sold at the school store, farmers' markets, restaurants, or donated to charity if the revenue is not needed to support farm operations. Examples of community supported agriculture programs and costs used to calculate numbers can be found using the following links. Extensive input was provided by board member Luke Petersen, who currently runs a community supported agricultural program in Salt Lake County.

Support for Standards and Use of Data

All courses at Roots Charter High School will align with the Common Core Standards. Because of the interdisciplinary nature of the school, teachers will collaborate over the summer to determine in which classes and how each standard is taught and assessed for mastery. Roots Charter High School anticipates one teacher will work as the assessment director on a part time basis, teaching the balance of the time. This person's job is to schedule ongoing assessments (at least monthly), monitor and disaggregate data and lead the teachers in a monthly meeting to discuss where the school needs to improve for all students and discuss individual students needing additional support, as well as how this support is to be provided. He or she will be responsible for monitoring support and helping instructors adjust as necessary.

Due to purchasing and procurement rules, Roots Charter High School will not determine a particular provider or software package at this time. However, school founders have done research, and are impressed with the Northwest Evaluation Association's product. It allows for data to be collected and disaggregated quickly and is aligned with the Common Core Standards. Roots Charter High School will select a program that includes the following components:

- Computer-Based Adaptive Assessment: The program will adjust questions (increasing or decreasing difficulty) as the student is taking an assessment to provide an accurate picture of which standards the student has mastered.
- Data Reporting: The program will allow the assessment director and teachers to disaggregate data by student and standard to identify global school needs as well as individual student needs. It will also allow a comparison of students.
- Tracking Growth: The program will allow teachers to track the growth of a student over the year, and compare this growth from year to year.
- Resources: The program will provide teachers with information about implementing and improving strategies to improve standards mastery. Professional Development classes and programs will also function to properly train teachers.

Section 10: School Closure Plan

The board will review its compliance with and progress toward state-defined minimum standards and board-determined targets in the school's charter. The school's executive director is responsible to review all metrics and report to the Board annually, as the measure for each target becomes available. The director will also propose an action plan to address any targets that the school has not met or has regressed in performance.

The school board will notify its authorizer of its action plans if progress under those plans is not adequate after each year of its implementation. In any case, the board will inform the authorizer of progress toward all metrics after three years of operation, or upon earlier request or according to authorizer policy. All action plans and the director's report on progress and compliance with targets will be available to all stakeholders as part of the public board meeting records for each meeting where such reports are given.

In the event of closure, whether by the revocation of the school's charter or a planned cessation of operations, Roots will ensure that adequate human, financial, and planning resources are in place for a smooth transition and legal compliance with Utah Code 53A-1a-510.5 and in a way that protects students, employees, debt holders, and taxpayers.

Over the first five years, the school will set aside in a separate account $10,000 per year to be used in the event of school closure to engage a charter school or business transition firm to perform closure operations over a period of 90 days. Services will include asset disposal, student transfers, family support, debt negotiation, employment termination, and working with state agencies on protecting taxpayer assets, including equipment and property.

Once the closure process is initiated, the school's interests will shift from providing education and protecting the school's interests to protecting the state's and chartering entity's interests, as well as the obvious interests of students and families.

The closure plan and procedures will include the following:

Student Transfer

- Appoint a registrar to complete all aspects of student records related to closure.
- Coordinate with surrounding school districts and charter schools, and private schools if necessary, to accept transfer students.
- Coordinate with students and families on finding the school that will best meet each student's needs for future education.
- Ensure that all student records, including special education records, are sent to all schools accepting transfer students.

- Counsel with students and families to reduce the anxiety that may be part of the closure and move to a new school.

Asset Disposal

- Work with the State Charter School Board on identifying a potential new or expanding applicant who can assume ownership of school assets and liabilities, including the school's facility and existing lease or bond payments.
- Sell school equipment or assets at market value, with proceeds either paying down existing debt, compensating for additional school closure services, or going back to the state as outlined in statute. All asset disposal or sales will be consistent with existing agreements and obligations.
- Ensure that building security is maintained throughout the closure process to protect assets and the facility.
- Transfer all other assets to the state, the owner under law of all school assets in the event of closure.

Liabilities

- Seek to find other schools or organizations that can assume the ownership of current and long-term agreements. Work with state charter school board on identifying a new or expanding charter school that can benefit from existing facility, equipment, and agreements.
- Pay down any liabilities first with proceeds from any asset sale or cash on hand.
- Initiate bankruptcy proceedings, if appropriate.
- Inform bondholders and State Treasurer's office, if applicable, of closure as required in bond covenants or in state law.

Employees

- Assist current employees with job placement services
- Ensure that benefits programs continue consistent with COBRA
- Assist employees with transfer of retirement assets into personal accounts or rollover into other retirement programs
- Provide letters of recommendation for employees, as appropriate

Section 11: Dismissal Procedures and Suspension/Expulsion

Roots Charter High School believes all students have a right to learn in a safe and respectful environment, and student discipline is essential to maintaining a healthy educational environment. To that end, school behavioral expectations are explained and enforced from the first day of school. It is expected that teachers maintain order in the classroom and in other areas of the school where they supervise students. Other faculty and staff support the culture of respect in the school. In the event of a student violating behavioral expectations, disciplinary action may be taken by school administration in compliance with school policy and applicable state and federal laws and regulations.

The Board authorizes the administration to take appropriate action to preserve order among students and staff and to protect school property. The Board of Trustees will not, as a general rule, review student suspensions.

Acts of violence, use or possession of a weapon or facsimile, criminal behaviour toward persons or school property or activities shall be dealt with in accordance with state law (Utah Code §53-A-11-901) as it explains suspension/expulsion of students from public schools and in accordance with Utah Special Education Rules and IDEA 2004.

Due Process Procedure and Disciplinary Action

Due process is the administrative procedure followed when a students' attendance at Roots Charter High School is in question due to violation of the disciplinary code. Fairness and reasonableness are to be used when deciding on disciplinary actions. Roots Charter High School administration investigates and handles disciplinary matters in compliance with the school's suspension/expulsion policy (Attachment D) and all applicable state and federal laws, including IDEA.

Section 12: Complaints

Roots Charter High School values the input of stakeholders and acknowledges the importance of good communication and mutual respect in working out differences. For students, conflict management and resolution abilities are necessary skills for future success, which are addressed in the complaint policy. Roots Charter High School encourages all members of the school community (students, parents, faculty, and staff) to try to work out issues in a cooperative manner with the involved parties in an informal way if possible, first working directly with the individual(s) directly involved in the situation, and working through the procedures of the official complaint policy, as outlined in Attachment E. All complaints, formal and informal, should be acknowledged and resolved in a timely manner, as described in the complaint policy.

Section 13: Parent Involvement

Roots Charter High School believes that working in partnership with parents and guardians is critical to providing an education that meets the needs of the whole student and it is a significant component of Root's vision. Roots Charter High School has one elected parent position on the Governing Board.

Opportunities for volunteers in and out of the classroom include, but are not limited to:

- Providing teacher support during class time, in class, on the farm or at home with special projects, enrichment activities, clerical duties and other opportunities that arise in individual classrooms
- Contribute as a special guest with information that enriches the curriculum being studied
- Volunteer in the library and computer lab
- Support fundraising projects
- Strategic planning teams
- Leadership in the Parent/Teacher/Student Organization to give input to the Governing Board and organize school events at Roots Charter High School

Opportunities for parental involvement will be advertised on the school website, through e-mail requests, and/or through direct notice from teachers. Roots Charter High School will also have opportunities for parents to learn more about volunteer activities and sign up to participate at back to school events, SEP conferences, and other school events.

Roots Charter High School encourages parents to contribute in whatever way they deem as personally meaningful, and does not require a specific amount of time be donated to the school.

Section 14: Employees

Roots Charter High School's board will ensure that properly licensed, endorsed, and highly qualified teachers and paraprofessionals will be hired and developed at the school. Priority will be given to employees who demonstrate an understanding of and dedication to the unique mission, with a priority on experience in agriculture or ecology.. This section will outline the school's hiring process, internal HR record keeping standards, essential responsibilities for each key position, and procedures for evaluating and terminating employees.

At-Will Employment

Roots is an at-will employer. The school will not sign contracts for any length of time for any employee, with the potential exception of the school's executive director. All HR policies, forms, manuals, and procedures will protect the school's at-will employment status. Nothing in this charter, including any description of possible procedures relating to any HR transaction shall be construed to limit the at-will nature of employment at Roots.

Hiring

Roots will use a process similar to this outline when hiring for all positions:

- Board will adopt policy, and administration will adopt procedure, to ensure that all state and federal employment and tax laws are followed, including R277-524 regarding criminal background checks for all employees and volunteers that have significant unsupervised access to students.
- Identify specific needs to be addressed.
- Identify the essential functions for the created positions, craft job descriptions, identify prevailing market wages for similar positions in similar schools and ensure that any new hire is acceptable given budget constraints.
- Post the position widely using any and all available resources, with a priority given to lower-cost resources that return quality applicants.
- Review submitted resumes for compatibility and experience with essential job functions. Contact selected candidates for interviews and verify their licensure and endorsement for the position, if applicable.
- Interview candidates with at least two school representatives who each score the applicant's suitability for the position independently.
- If necessary, bring the top candidates for a follow-up interview.
- Check references of candidates considered for eventual hire.
- Select and notify the best-suited candidate(s) and congratulate the new employee(s) on their new future with Roots.

HR Procedures and Records

Once an employee is selected for employment, the process for completing new-hire paperwork and documentation, including any required background checks, will be handled by the school's business office. The procedures will be similar to those outlined below:

- An "Employee Benefits File" that contains benefit and health information.
- An "Employee Performance File" that contains internal records of evaluations, licenses and certificates, and records of employee performance.

Evaluations

All employees will be evaluated regularly to ensure that performance is measured, results are shared, and incentives are in place for continued development and improvement for all employees. All employees will be evaluated using outcome-based measurements based on the essential job functions in each job description. An evaluation procedure of key employees is described below:

Teachers

- Director and other administrators will observe all teachers at least quarterly and provide written feedback after each observation.

- Teachers will have one annual development conference and one annual year-end evaluation with the school director.

Employment of relatives

Roots will be consistent in all policies regarding employees, to include state and federal law. The school recognizes that nepotism or the perception of it can undermine a successful workplace. In all cases, Roots will judge and evaluate employees on objective standards of performance targeted to improve student achievement.

To avoid nepotism or the appearance of it, no family relationships (sibling, child, parent, or half- or step- sibling, child, or parent, and sibling- or parent-in-law) shall exist between lines of authority within the school. Relatives of employees or board members may exist consistent with applicable law and rule, but employees may not be hired, promoted, or otherwise placed in positions where any supervision of relatives will occur.

Terms of Employment

Roots Charter High School is an at-will employer. Employers may choose to terminate employment at any time for any reason or for no reason, and so may Roots as an employer. Roots Charter High School recognizes that the best way to impact children's learning is to attract and retain quality teachers.

Roots Charter High School intends to have a workplace culture that is enjoyable and empowering for the school's faculty and staff. High turnover will not be conducive to such a culture. While the school reserves the right to make all employment terminations at its discretion, the school has no intent to be inconsistent or reactionary in making employment decisions. Employment actions, including discipline, probation, or termination of employment will be made when the school has evidence that such an action is in the best interests of the school and its students.

Section 15: Services

Roots Charter High School will ensure that the school has robust supporting services for its students, teachers, administration, and facility. The school anticipates that most of its support services will be provided by employees. However, in each case and for each service, the school's management will determine whether it may be more cost effective if provided by employees or by contracted providers who specialize in a specific service.

Several factors will factor in the decision of whether or not to hire directly or contract for services. Factors the school will consider will include:

- Cost comparison for comparable services
- Risk of liability
- Availability of local resources, in both individuals and companies
- Training expense compared to available expertise
- References from other schools and track records of potential service providers
- Other factors that may vary by position or service required

While the draft budget included with this application assumes some services (business management, speech therapy) will be provided by contracted providers and others (library, school administration) will be handled by employees, the school will always analyze the best value before making a final decision or executing any contract or hiring any employee. In all cases, the school will consider state guidance regarding Education Service Providers and will follow its Education Service Provider policy, which is included in this section.

The school will consider whether or not the best value for the below services (the list may not be exhaustive, and Roots Charter High School reserves the right to contract for services not included on this list if it determines that such contracts represent the best value) will be provided by employees or contracted providers:

- School Management
- Business Management
- Counseling
- Facilities Maintenance
- Snow Removal and landscape maintenance
- Speech Therapy and other special education services
- Special Education instruction and oversight
- Information Technology support
- Curriculum development
- Professional Development
- Courses that may be taught remotely

- Data reporting

With respect to the contracting with Educational Service Providers, the Board of Trustees may not cause or allow conditions that are unfair or undignified or in violation of the charter.

Accordingly, they shall not:

1. Rely on legal counsel for review of any ESP Agreement that also represents the ESP or its principals. The ESP agreement shall be an arms-length, negotiated agreement between and informed Board of Trustees and the ESP.
2. Sign any contract with an ESP, which would purport to amend or change Roots Charter High School charter or contain any provisions inconsistent with the Charter.
3. Fail to budget adequate resources to fulfill its charter requirements which may include, but are not limited to: oversight of the ESO, payment of staff costs, leases or mortgage requirements, required insurance, annual financial audit accreditation, the Board's legal counsel, and any other such cost necessary for Roots Charter High School operations.
4. Fail to follow procurement code.
5. Sign a contract that charges the school for marketing and development of the ESP.
6. Sign a contract that fails to contain insurance provisions outlining the coverage's the ESP will obtain. The ESP's insurance is separate from and in addition to the insurances the Board of Trustees is required to obtain.
7. Sign a contract with provisions that interfere with the Board's duty to exercise its statutory, contractual, and fiduciary responsibilities governing the operations of Roots Charter High School. No provisions of the ESP agreement should prohibit the Board of Trustees from acting as an independent, self-governing public body, or allow public decisions to be made other than in compliance with Utah's Open & Public Meeting Act.
8. Sign a contract that fails to contain a provision that all finance and other records of the ESP related to Roots Charter High School will be made available to Roots Charter High School independent auditor and State Charter School Board. ESP agreements shall not permit the ESP to select and retain an independent auditor for Roots Charter High School.
9. Sign a contract that does not stipulate that if an ESP purchases equipment, materials, and supplies on behalf of or as the agent of Roots Charter High School using school funds, that such equipment, materials, and supplies are and remain the property of Roots Charter High School.

10. Sign a contract that does not provide that Roots Charter High School owns all proprietary rights to curriculum or educational materials that (i) are both directly developed and paid for by Roots Charter High School; or (ii) were developed by the ESP at the direction of the Board of Trustees with school funds dedicated for the specific purpose of developing such curriculum or materials.

11. Sign ESP contracts involving employees that are unclear about which person or positions are employees of the ESP, and which persons or positions are employees of Roots Charter High School. If the ESP leases employees to Roots Charter High School, the ESO agreement shall provide that the leasing company accepts full liability for benefits, salaries, worker's compensation, unemployment compensation and liability insurance for its employees lease to Roots Charter High School or working on Roots Charter High School operations. If Roots Charter High School is staffed through an employee leasing agreement, legal confirmation should be provided to the Board of Trustees that the employment structure qualifies as employee leasing.

12. Sign a contract with an ESP where a lease, executes promissory note, or other negotiable instruments, or enters into a lease-purchase agreement or other financing relations is contained in the ESP contract.

13. Sign a contract that does not allow for Roots Charter High School to use one of the following methods for paying fees or expenses:

a. Reimburse the ESO for approved fees or expenses upon properly presented documentation approved by the Board of Trustees.

b. Advance funds to the ESO for the fees or expenses associated with Roots Charter High School operation providing that documentation for the fees and expenses are provided for by Board of Trustees ratification.

Description of Technology Plan:

Roots Charter High School will provide students with the technology literacy skills necessary for success in the highly technological world they live in. While technology is not the focus of the school, Roots Charter High School acknowledges the importance of it in everyday life and will provide students with access to it. Technology will be used to support learning in the classroom and for assessment purposes. All teachers will participate in professional development on an ongoing basis in order to make sure technology is being used at its full potential.

Roots Charter High School’s campus will have fiber-optic connectivity. Bandwidth will not be a limiting factor. Rather than devote significant resources to computers, Roots Charter High School will devote a significant share of its technology budget to building and maintaining a powerful infrastructure to support teaching and learning. This will include servers, systems, and software that will support teachers and students through a robust wireless network.

The school’s program will operate on Windows, Apple, and Android devices—most any device that students want to use. Roots Charter High School may allow students to provide their own laptop computer, iPad/tablet or other device.

Budget Allocations: Roots has budgeted $10,000 for technology in its first operational year, and increases it as enrollment ramps up over the next two years. Some items such as routers, servers, projectors, etc. will be included in the FF&E budget.

Roots Charter High School is confident it can provide the technological infrastructure that it needs to effectively deliver its educational program.

Section 16: Special Education

Services and Placement

All special education services at Roots Charter High School will be in compliance with the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) as it was reauthorized in 2004 and State of Utah Special Education Rules. Section 504, accommodations for regular education students are also followed as directed by law. The Director will oversee the special education department, staffed by properly licensed teachers and paraprofessionals. In addition to special education teachers and aids, Roots Charter High School will hire or contract with ancillary service providers, including but not limited to, psychologists, speech-language pathologists, occupational therapists, and physical therapists as needs are identified in individual education maps (IEP). Roots Charter High School administration will closely monitor special education caseloads, and follow special education caseload guidelines from the USOE. Funding will come from special education monies, and if necessary, the general school budget, in compliance with Roots Charter High School Fiscal Policy.

All students are entitled to a free and appropriate public education (FAPE). Roots Charter High School provides services along a continuum, making sure students receive their educations in the least restrictive environment. Some general education students may require one or more accommodations to receive FAPE, and will then be placed on a 504 plan. Students requiring academic instruction or related services in addition to those provided in the regular classroom setting will have an IEP in place. The IEP will determine type(s), frequency and location(s) of service; services may happen in or outside of the regular classroom, for varying amounts of time, based on individual student needs. Some students may receive services through a regular education teacher who is receiving consultation and support from the special education staff. Direct services to students may include receipt of supplemental instruction individually or in a small group setting within the classroom by a special education or regular classroom teacher, an instructional aide being assigned to help within or outside of the classroom, instruction outside of the classroom setting (pull-out), placement in a self-contained classroom, or home and hospital instruction. Roots Charter High School has classrooms dedicated to special education, and the entire school building, including restrooms, classrooms, playgrounds, playground equipment, and building accesses will meet the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) accessibility requirements.

Roots Charter High School will utilize the response to intervention RtI approach for all students who may be struggling with academic skills. With this approach, a teacher identifies the area(s) in which a student is struggling. Strategies are then determined by the teacher and parent, with or without special education consultation, which may be beneficial to the student. If these are not successful, special education consultation and testing will begin in accordance with procedural safeguards. It is the intent of Roots Charter High School to provide all students with skills and supports necessary for academic success. One of these tools may be extended school year (ESY) services, which will be addressed in the IEP meeting. Any student qualifying for ESY will receive academic services during the summer at no cost to the family. ESY services may also address social, behavioral, and communication needs.

Qualified Staff

All special education staff at Roots Charter High School will be properly licensed and endorsed to work within the special education program. Roots Charter High School assures that necessary educational staff and related service providers will be available to ensure all requirements of FAPE are met, in compliance with USBE-SER IX.F. The special education teacher(s) will hold a valid educator's license with the appropriate special education endorsement, and all related services providers (i.e. speech language pathologist, occupational therapist, physical therapist, social worker, adaptive physical education specialist, and psychologist) will have valid licenses specific to their disciplines, in compliance with USBE-SER IX.D and IX. H. The Director of Roots Charter High School is responsible for making sure all providers are properly licensed and certified.

The Director of Roots Charter High School will be familiar with special education policy and procedure, and will receive ongoing training in Special Education Rules and Regulation through interaction with the Utah State Office of Education Special Education Department. He or she works closely with the special education staff of the school, and all receive annual training regarding policy, procedure, and best practices. An annual report to the Board of Trustees will indicate the type and amount of training received, as well as a schedule for trainings in the coming year.

The Director and Business Manager will receive training regarding allowable uses of restricted IDEA and Utah State special education funds in compliance with EDGAR, OMB A-133, and USBE-SER IX and X. They will be responsible for ensuring adequate documentation is maintained and available to support the use of all restricted funds.

Policies

Roots Charter High School will provide the Utah State Office of Education a Special Education Policies and Procedures Manual for approval prior to November 1 of the first operational year. This manual will be in compliance with Utah State Board of Education Special Education Rules and IDEA, as it was reauthorized in 2004. Staff will be provided with ongoing professional development in key areas identified by the Director and special education department.

Child Find

In order to locate students needing special education services, Roots Charter High School will actively participate in child find activities. Upon entrance to the school, initial paperwork will ask if the student has a current IEP. If an IEP is in place, records from the previous school will be requested and special education services will begin immediately in accordance with the existing IEP. The IEP team will then determine whether to adopt the existing IEP or convene a meeting for the purpose of constructing a new IEP. Teachers will receive training on identifying students who may have special education needs at the beginning of each year, with ongoing training through staff meetings or written communication from the Director and/or special education department. In addition, teachers will be provided additional training in all other relevant topics in regards to special education as needed throughout the year.

Procedural safeguards are in place and compliant with IDEA laws. When a child is identified as potentially needing special education services, a request for an initial evaluation is made to the special education department. This request can be generated by a parent or teacher. Before testing can begin, the parents must sign a “consent to test” form. Upon receipt of the consent to test, the initial evaluation to determine eligibility for IDEA Part B services must be completed within 45 days. If the referral is generated by Roots Charter High School and parents do not return or refuse to sign the consent to test, the initial evaluation may occur under the due process procedures established by the Utah State Office of Education Special Education Rules. Evaluations will utilize a variety of appropriate assessments, both formal and informal, and will be comprehensive enough to adequately address all areas of need. All assessments will be valid and reliable, and administered by trained and qualified personnel. Observations may also be included as part of the assessment. Parents will receive a copy of the evaluation results, and if the student is determined to be eligible for Special Education, an IEP meeting is scheduled.

Parents will receive a prior written notice about the meeting, which will indicate the mutually agreed upon time, location, purpose of the meeting, as well as who will be in attendance. Parents must also receive a copy of procedural safeguards prior to the beginning of services, and annually thereafter. The IEP meeting is held within 30 calendar days of eligibility determination with the IEP team, which will include all of the following:

- Parent(s)
- At least one of the student’s regular education teachers
- Special education teacher
- Local Education Agency (LEA) representative (Director or Special Education Director at Roots Charter High School)

- Someone who can interpret assessment results to the team, and may be one of the team members listed above

The team may also include any of the following:

- Related service providers
- The student, whenever possible and appropriate
- Someone with special knowledge or expertise if invited by the parent, or Roots Charter High School with parental consent

Should a parent not be able to attend the IEP meeting, alternative participation methods such as conference calls or video conferences may be utilized. A meeting may be conducted without a parent present if Roots Charter High School has made and kept record of attempts to arrange a mutually agreed upon time and place. Records will include actual and attempted communication made and results thereof. Copies of correspondence and any responses, as well as detailed records of visits made to the parent's home or place of employment and results of those visits.

During the IEP the type(s) of service the student needs, along with where they will occur and the frequency and duration (defined as placement) will be determined. The IEP must include a statement of the student's present levels of academic achievement and functional performance, including how the student's disability affects the student's involvement and progress in the general education curriculum. It must also include measurable goals designed to meet the student's needs resulting from the disability that allow the student access, involvement, and progress in the general education curriculum. They must meet any other educational needs resulting from the disability, assistive technology the student may need, how progress will be measured and reported, and alternative assessment means and methods with justification if it is determined the student is unable to use the regular State-wide assessments. Other elements may be included as determined by State and Federal law. The IEP is valid for one year, and must be reviewed and have a new IEP in place prior to the expiration of the current IEP. A meeting to review and/or revise a current IEP may be held at any time, and must follow the procedural safeguards of a regular IEP meeting.

Special Education Records

If parents have complaints, all grievance policy, as laid out in the most current Utah Special Education Rules will be followed (last updated 12/09, pages 109-116). This includes requests for amendment of student records as well.

The special education department, under the direction of the Director, will maintain proper forms and paperwork that are available and used, including, but not limited to:

- Procedural Safeguards Notice

- Prior Written Notice
- Notice of Meeting
- At Risk Documentation
- Referral
- Consent to Evaluate/Re-evaluate
- Review of Existing Data
- Evaluation Summary Report
- Determination of Eligibility
- Individual Education Program
- Transition Plan
- Services Plan
- Consent for Initial Placement
- Change of Placement
- Notice Regarding Age of Majority Rights
- Summary of Academic Achievement and Performance
- Record of Access
- Access Authorization

When a student on an IEP or 504 plan transfers to Roots Charter High School from another school, the special education department will conduct a review of the records within thirty days, then do one of the following:

If the student has transferred from within the state, the team will adopt the previously held IEP, or develop, adopt, and implement a new IEP that is consistent with Federal regulations and USBE SER rules.

If the student has transferred from out of state, the IEP team will conduct an evaluation, if determined to be necessary by the LEA; and develops a new IEP, if appropriate, that is consistent with Federal and State law.

All transferring students will receive services similar to those required in the existing IEP until the review has been completed and the previous IEP adopted or a new one is adopted and implemented.

All Federal Education Right to Privacy Act (FERPA) laws will be followed at Roots Charter High School. The confidentiality of personally identifiable information at collection, storage, disclosure, transfer, and destruction stages will be protected and handled in a timely manner. The Director has responsibility for ensuring this confidentiality, in conjunction with the special education director. All persons collecting or accessing student information are required to receive instruction regarding policies and proper procedures for safeguarding information. A current list of staff with access to records is posted for public inspection, and records are kept in a locked filing cabinet in the Special Education Director's office. A record is kept in each file documenting persons who have reviewed the file, including the name of the party, the date access was given, and the purpose for which the party is authorized to use the records. Additionally, parents must be given access to records when requested unless Roots Charter High School has been advised the parent does not have legal access to due guardianship, separation, or divorce situations.

Parents must receive notice prior to records being transferred, and when collected personally identifiable information is no longer needed, the parents (or student if age 18 or older) must be notified, and information must be destroyed at their request. A permanent record of student's name, address and phone number, grades, attendance record, classes attended, grade level completed, and year completed shall be maintained without limitation. Records may be considered "no longer needed" and may be destroyed three years after the student graduates or three years after the student turns 22. In accordance with FERPA, the rights of privacy afforded to parents are transferred to the student at age 18, unless declared incompetent by a court order. Prior written notice will be provided to the student and the parent.

Appendix A: Lottery Policy

Selection:

Federal and State laws prohibit the selection process from discriminating against anyone regarding religion, gender, race, national origin, color, disability or age.

Roots Charter High School's initial open application period extends from formal charter approval and lasts 30 days. Thereafter, each year, the application window will be open as determined by the board and last at least 30 days. Lottery will be open to all applicants, with 5% space available after enrollment that will be reserved for the founders' children and siblings of current students. If there are open spots available after the lottery, we will open up enrollment to out of district applicants. Applications expire in 12 months after the date of application.

Roots will follow all applicable laws regarding enrollment and lottery, including 53A-1a-506.5, including applicable dates, except as already granted by the waiver request to open early under 53a-1a-501.9. The school will follow district and public notification procedures, allow enrollment exceptions to protect the health and safety of a student, and list all lottery and enrollment procedures on its website.

Notification:

Upon its approval, Roots Charter High School will provide community notification as follows:

Within ten days of approval: fliers announcing the school's approval, public meeting, and acceptance of student applications will be posted throughout the school's service area. These will be posted in diverse businesses, including grocery stores, dance studios, auto parts stores, gas stations, and so forth. They will also be posted in the public library, the recreation center, city, state and county buildings. A press release detailing the school's approval, public meeting, and acceptance of student applications will be sent to every newspaper, radio, and television station in Uintah County.

Within fifteen days of approval: Roots Charter High School will hold several public meetings to explain details about the school to interested people and explain the application process.

The school will continue its efforts at community notification through the close of its open enrollment period by generating weekly press releases. The school will continue its efforts at community notification through holding an open, informational meeting at the community centers in the service area.

The school will continue to communicate with interested community members through regular emails to its mailing list. The school will continue to accept all applications received until spots are full to capacity. Applications received after the initial lottery, will be kept on file.

Standards:

A parent/student handbook will be given to each child upon enrollment and will outline the expected school standards.

Appendix C: Purchasing Policies and Procedures

Internal Controls

Internal Controls are an integral part of a charter school (school) “control environment” to ensure the school’s assets are safeguarded and to minimize risk. Internal controls consist of well-crafted policies, procedures, guides (guidelines) and forms indicating how we’re supposed to do it. They also include implementation and practices (modeling) by leadership and school staff how we actually do it. How we’re supposed to do it and how we actually do it should be the same in almost all circumstances. Internal controls are developed for the purpose of:

- Protecting against waste of resources through inefficiencies;
- Protecting resources against embezzlement, bribes, theft or other types of fraud;
- Protecting against poor management, carelessness and unintentional errors;
- Securing compliance with both law and rules of the state, policies of the school and the audit requirements of the State of Utah pertaining to “public funds”;
- Protecting against loss or destruction of records;
- Ensuring data reliability and accuracy;
- Evaluating the level of performance of the school’s operations.

Under the direction of the Governing Board, schools are required to establish and maintain adequate accounting records and implement internal control policies & procedures. Internal control consists of six components: control environment, risk assessment, control activities, information and communication, segregation of duties and monitoring. The objectives of internal control relate to financial reporting, operations, and compliance. The Board and all levels of administration and instructional staff are responsible for preventing and detecting instances of fraud and related misconduct and for establishing and maintaining proper internal controls that provide security and accountability. The Board and administration are also responsible for recognizing risks and exposures inherent to these areas of responsibility and for being aware of indications of fraud or related misconduct. Any employee with reasonable basis for believing fraudulent or related misconduct has occurred should report such incidents to the designated authorities within the school or to the State Office of Education.

Internal controls provide schools with the foundation to properly safeguard assets, implement policies, provide compliance with state and federal laws and regulations and produce timely and accurate financial information. Board members and directors should review the Charter Solutions’ Internal Controls Guide to further understand the need for internal controls and their role in their implementation and oversight.

The policies outlined herein will be reviewed at least annually. Employees involved in the processes and procedures associated with these policies will be trained at least annually in their duties.

Governing Board Authority

The Board of Trustees, Governing Board, etc. (Board) is responsible for the operation of school in accordance with state and federal laws. The Board is also responsible for operating the school in accordance with the representations made in its charter. Specifically, the Board shall have the sole authority to approve and will incorporate into its own minutes such matters as:

- Change of the school's name, with the authorizer and other entities;
- Adoption and amendment of the annual budget;
- Selection or termination of key employees;
- Key employees' salary and benefits changes;
- Incur debt, mortgages or other encumbrances and their covenants and restrictions, within the terms of the charter;
- Investment policies, depository and investment banks;
- Purchase or sale of real property;
- Review and acceptance of interim monthly financial statements;
- Selection of the school's auditor (CPA firm);
- Service on the school's audit committee;
- Review of any transaction or account of the school at its discretion.

Administrative Authority

The school Director and under their direction, business office staff, are authorized by the Board to execute all legal transactions for the school (with exceptions for certain capital purchases and indebtedness, etc. noted herein) and to make all purchases and disbursements necessary according to policy for the operation of the school. The Director and business office staff independently report all financial transactions directly to the Board periodically in a public board meeting. Both the Director and the employee(s) within the business office may report to the Board independently if requested, or if they deem appropriate on certain matters, or in any case where mismanagement or fraud is suspected.

Compliance with Laws

The school will follow all applicable laws and regulations that govern charter schools within the State of Utah. The school shall comply with Title IX and shall not discriminate on the basis of sex in education programs. Applicable federal laws and regulations will be adopted as federal program funds and grant funding is received.

The school will provide access to school records if requested by a person or entity under the Government Records Access Management Act (GRAMA). Additionally, records will be available to the Utah State Office of Education (USOE), State Charter School Board or other governmental entity as needed.

General Policies

Political Contributions

No funds or assets of the school may be contributed to any political party or organization or to any individual who either holds public office or is a candidate for public office. Following are examples of prohibited activities:

- Contributions by an employee that are reimbursed through expense accounts or in other ways;
- Purchase of tickets for political fundraising events;
- Contributions in-kind, such as lending employees to political parties or using the school's assets in political campaigns.

Record Keeping

To provide an accurate record of all financial transactions (a good audit trail), the school's books, records, and accounts are maintained in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles as required by state law applicable to charter schools. This includes recordkeeping in both the modified and full-accrual bases of accounting. Audited financial statements certified by an independent auditor will be prepared annually using the accrual basis of accounting. Further, the school specifically requires that:

- No funds or accounts may be established or maintained for purposes that are not fully and accurately described within the books and records of the school;
- Receipts and disbursements must be fully and accurately described in the books and records;
- No false or fictitious vendors, invoices or entries may be made on the books or records nor any false or misleading reports issued.

Record Retention and Disposal

Records are maintained for the minimum period according to state law and the guidelines of the Utah State Archives. The following records supporting federal contracts, as required by U.S. Office of Management and Budget, are retained for the indicated minimum periods or consistent with state law:

1. For three years after submission of the final report of expenditures: general ledger, trial balance, accounts payable and accounts receivable ledger, payroll register, and petty cash book, check register and checks, invoices. Except for:
 - a) If any litigation, claim, or audit is started before the expiration of the 3-year period, the records shall be retained until all litigation, claims or audit findings involving the records have been resolved and final action taken.
 - b) Records for real property and equipment acquired with Federal funds shall be retained for 3 years after final disposition.
2. Permanently: Audit reports, annual corporate reports, charter, board minutes, tax and legal correspondence, labor contracts, insurance claims and policies, and retirement and pension records.

The disposal date determined under this policy is the end of the fiscal year, or the date of final payment of government grants. All records not supporting government grants or otherwise covered by rules of the Internal Revenue Service are retained according to state law.

Asset Protection Policies

Signature Authority

To properly segregate duties, the Board Chair (President), the Treasurer, the Director/Principal or others as expressly authorized are the only individuals with signatory authority and are responsible for authorizing all cash transactions. Each disbursement shall require two signatures to be authorized.

Security of Financial Data

The school's accounting software will be maintained to ensure that adequate internal controls and security measures are established to minimize unauthorized access to school data (i.e., proper password protection). The system's accounting data shall be backed up periodically to ensure the recoverability of financial information in case of failure. The backup file(s) must be stored separately in a fire safe area and properly secured. All other financial data, petty cash box(es), check stock, etc. will be secured from unauthorized access.

Security of School Documents

Originals of the following corporate documents are maintained and their presence shall be verified on a periodic basis:

- Charter and all related amendments;
- Articles of Incorporation and By-laws;
- Minutes of the Board of Trustees and subcommittees;
- Corporate and payroll tax registrations;
- Banking & financial agreements;
- Leases;
- Insurance policies;

- Grant and contract agreements;
- Fixed asset inventory list.

Use of School Assets

School employees should not use any of the school's assets for personal use without prior approval of the school administration and with proper justification.

Facilities Use by Outside Persons or Entities

In accordance with state law, the Board authorizes, on condition, the use of school facilities for other than school purposes. It is understood that the school shall by law assume no expense as a result of the leasing of school properties, facilities, including grounds, furnishings and equipment. It is further understood that restraint must be exercised in leasing facilities for purposes other than school functions, to the extent that such leasing shall not interfere with the school curriculum, program and standards. The Board may refuse the use of school facilities by outside entities if it determines the use is inadvisable.

The Board authorizes the Administration to establish rules, guidelines, procedures and fees for the rental and use of school facilities for other than school purposes. The Board will review and approve the procedures as needed. The School Director and Business Manager shall administer the rules and guidelines and see that all entities follow established procedures.

Audit

The Board contracts annually with a qualified independent certified public accounting firm to conduct a fiscal audit of the school's financial records and statements. The audit is performed in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, Government Auditing Standards issued by the Comptroller General of the United States, 2003 Revision (GAS) and, if applicable, the U.S Office of Management and Budget's Circular A-87 and A-122. The selected firm must be familiar with these standards and related state regulations in order to properly conduct the fiscal audit.

Audit Committee

The Board shall establish an audit committee per Administrative Rule R277-113, comprised exclusively of Board members, which shall:

- Seek to understand its role and duties as outlined in the GFOA Audit Committees guide;
- Review, audit and initial original bank statements and account reconciliations from the accounting system for each period reconciled;

- Review, in a public meeting, audit reports provided to the Committee directly by outside firms;
- Review the school's risk assessment processes and procedures to ensure adequate internal controls are maintained;
- Ensure timely resolution of matters reported by internal audits or by outside firms;
- Ensure that outside firms are selected through a competitive-bid process;
- Be responsible for the appointment, compensation, retention, and oversight of the work of any independent accountants engaged for the purpose of preparing or issuing an independent audit report or performing other independent audit, review, or attest services;
- Periodically review this policy, no less than once every five years, to assess its continued adequacy;
- Possess knowledge of and experience in finance, auditing, or accounting if possible;
- Review the annual audit, and any other work performed by a contracted auditor, prior to its submission to any outside party or authority, and report to the Board that it has discussed the financial statements with management, with the independent auditors in private, and privately among committee members, and believes that they are fairly presented, to the extent such a determination can be made solely on the basis of such conversations.

Insurance and Bonding

The school maintains minimum levels of coverage, as deemed appropriate by the Board, for the following policies:

- General liability (earthquake coverage not included without express inclusion)
- Business & personal property
- Automobile insurance (as necessary)
- Workers' compensation
- Unemployment (tax)
- Directors and Officers
- Errors & Omissions/Professional Liability
- Employment Practices Liability Insurance
- Treasurers' (fidelity) Bond
- ERISA bond (as applicable for retirement plan)
- Other insurance as requested

A Treasurer's Bond (fidelity bond or Public Official Bond) is required on the person who has investment control over the school's public funds, typically the business manager, per UCA 51-7-15. This insurance coverage is not included in the school's other insurance policies and must be purchased separately. The school requires proof of adequate insurance coverage from all prospective sub-contractors, as deemed applicable by the Board.

Banking & Financial Management Policies

General

Accounting policies and financial reporting adopted by the school should be consistent with a special purpose governmental entity that engages in business-type activities. The Board has oversight of the management of the school inclusive of establishing the governance structure and the financial management policies as set forth in the school's charter

Budgeting

School administration prepares an annual operating budget of revenues and expenses (forecast or budget) for approval. The Board approves a final budget for the operation of the school for the prior twelve months. Both of these budgets are approved no later than June 30th of each school year. Budgets are reviewed and modified as necessary. These forward-looking budgets and projections are reviewed and approved by the Board at an open and public meeting.

- The fiscal year (budget year) of the school is July 1st through June 30th. The appropriate accounting period is used for all adjusting entries and accruals;
- Financial statements displaying budget vs. actual results are prepared by the business office and reviewed by the director and Treasurer and are presented to the Board at each board meeting (with limited exceptions);
- Administration shall follow the Board approved budget with exceptions approved by the Board.

Bank Accounts

The Board may authorize bank accounts for general or specific purposes. School assets shall be kept at any bank or financial institution that is approved by the Utah Money Management Council. All bank accounts shall be reconciled as often as statements are available, typically monthly.

Investments

The school shall follow state law and rule as outlined by statute, Administrative Rule and the rules of the Utah Money Management Council in investing school cash assets.

Petty Cash

Petty cash funds may be established for incidental, non-recurring cash advances, local expense reimbursement, and small-dollar vendor purchases, provided proper documentation is furnished with each request. No fund shall exceed $500 or individual payment shall be greater than $100. Petty cash funds are recorded on the balance sheet as a cash account. The petty cash account is balanced periodically by the business office.

Cash Handling and Cash Receipts

Wherever possible, duties such as collecting funds, maintaining documentation, preparing deposits and reconciling records should be segregated among different individuals. When segregation of duties is not possible due to the small size and limited staffing of the school, compensating controls such as management supervision and review of cash receipting records by independent parties should be implemented. School staff shall follow established procedures (internal controls) for the handling of cash receipts as outlined in the Cash Handling & Receipts Procedures. The school will comply with all applicable state and federal laws.

All funds shall be kept in a central, secure location until they are deposited in a school-approved fiduciary institution. Funds should be deposited daily or within three days after receipt, in compliance with Utah Code 51-4-2(2)(a). Unauthorized school employees should never hold funds in any unapproved location for any reason. Periodic and unscheduled audits or reviews should be performed for all cash activity. All payments of school fees shall correspond with the approved fee schedule, as required by State Board Administrative Rule 277-407.

Fundraising

Fundraising is generally permitted within the school to allow the school to raise additional funds to supplement school-sponsored academic and co-curricular programs. Fundraising at the school level is only authorized and administered by the Director. The Board shall annually review the fundraising activities of the school and of all activities that support or subsidize the school. The Board shall ensure that revenues raised during fundraising activities or through activities that support the school (local funds) are raised within established cash handling policies. All expenditures shall be made in accordance with established school policies and procedures. The Board shall ensure that all activities of fundraising and parent organizations are adequately reviewed and considered with the school's insurer to evaluate and manage risks associated with such activities. Fundraising guidelines are:

- All monies raised through fundraisers for school-sponsored activities are considered public funds. This includes all donations to the school, regardless of whether or not such donations are part of any fundraising activity or event;

- Cash Handling and Cash Receipt procedures of the school apply to all school-sponsored fundraising activities;
- Relationships with non-school employees in relation to fundraising activities are managed by the Director;
- Conflict of Interest forms must be completed when persons employed by or affiliated with the school are also involved in fundraising organizations or hold funds that that will benefit the school;
- Fundraising activities may be subject to fee waiver laws and the Director oversees the administration of fee waivers;
- “School-sponsored” means activities, fundraising events, clubs, camps, clinics, programs, sports, etc., or events, or activities that are authorized by the school, school board, administration, or board committees, including the authorized parent organization or authorized curricular school clubs, activities, sports, classes or programs that also satisfy one or more of the following criteria. The activity:
 - Is managed or supervised by school administration, staff, or authorized volunteers;
 - Uses the school’s facilities, equipment, or other school resources;
 - Is supported or subsidized, more than inconsequently, by public funds, including the public school’s activity funds or minimum school program dollars.

Properly approved school-sponsored activities:

- May use the school’s name, facilities, and equipment;
- May utilize school employees and other resources to supervise, promote, and otherwise staff the activity or fundraiser;
- May be eligible to be insured under the school’s liability insurance policy (subject to insurer);
- May provide additional compensation or stipends for school employees with the approval of the Director and under school payroll policies and consistent with the school’s budget;
- Must comply with all fee approval and fee waiver provisions established in Utah law, administrative rules and school policies.
- Fundraising activities, or activities of outside organizations of any kind that are not school sponsored activities must be conducted at arm’s length so that revenues and expenditures are not commingled with the public funds of the school.

Donation & Gifts

Donations may be accepted, upon approval by the Director, providing the item(s) to be donated (cash, goods, services) are legal to possess by a public school, safe, unencumbered, usable by the school and are generally not restricted in their use, or are not restricted for use by an individual employee. Donations for the purpose of compensating specific employees or positions may not be accepted (donors can donate for other purposes instead). Donations received by the school become public funds and may not be returned or expended except within the law as applicable to the appropriate use of public funds. All policies and procedures of the school are applicable to donations, including Cash Receipt and Disbursement policies and procedures, and all other internal controls.

Gifts to the school must be general in nature and may not be restricted such that they cannot be used for various purposes, except when those purposes are to a specific program, such as the PE program, science department or art program. Donations or gifts intended to benefit a specific student, teacher or classroom may not be accepted and could be considered a bribe.

The value of a gift or donation to the school may not be assessed or assigned by the school. The value and tax deductibility of a donation or gift made by an individual or company is to be determined by the donor and their accountant, not the school. No dollar value may be assigned to a donation verbally or in writing. If a product or service is given in return for a donation or gift that is clearly defined, such as a $250 advertising slot in the yearbook, that value can be disclosed by providing the school's advertising rates to the donor for them to assign a value.

Vending Machines

Vending machines are to be administered by the Director with the assistance of the business office and other school administrators. Two persons shall be present when removing cash from vending machines and delivering it to the school office for recording using the Cash Handling & Receipts Procedures. Accurate inventories of goods stocked and sold from vending machines are to be kept. Vending machine stock shall be stored adequately to minimize shrinkage and the program should be reviewed at least annually.

Financial Statement Reporting

The business office is required to maintain supporting records in sufficient detail to prepare the school's financial statements, including:

Monthly:

- Internally generated Income Statement, including budget vs. actual comparison and adequate notes & explanations
- Balance Sheet
- Cash Flow Statement

- Transaction Register

Annually:

- Financial statements for audit, with supporting statements as needed
- Annual budget

Capitalization of Property

All tangible personal property, land, capital improvements or buildings with a useful life of more than one year and a unit acquisition cost that exceeds the board-authorized capitalization threshold are recorded and capitalized on the property schedule. The Board shall establish the capitalization threshold. The asset capitalized cost includes actual tax, shipping/handling, and other expenses incurred to bring the asset ready for its intended use. Additionally, these policies apply to capital assets:

- All capitalized assets will be depreciated using the straight-line method of depreciation in accordance with such asset's useful life and governmental & financial accounting standards;
- The depreciation expense will be recorded in the statement of revenues, expenses, and changes in net assets;
- The school maintains records of all government-furnished property and equipment, with an identification and segregation of property and equipment acquired through government contracts;
- Upon receipt, all property that qualifies as necessary to include on the property schedule, or has reasonable possibility of theft, or is required by law, must be properly labeled with asset ID tags;
- Assets purchased or received that cost less than the depreciation threshold will be expensed in the period purchased;
- No item on the property schedule shall be removed from the premises without prior approval from the Board. Procedures for asset disposal must comply with state or federal law or regulation where appropriate. All Assets shall be disposed consistent with applicable regulations of any restricted funds with which they were purchased, according to state or US Dept. of Education General Administrative Regulations;
- Gains and losses from the sale or other disposition of property are recorded as revenue in the year in which they occur, and are reflected as such on applicable financial statements;
- A physical inventory of property included on the school's property schedule is performed on an annual or every two-year basis and is reconciled to the property schedule and general ledger of the school.

Liabilities

Encumbrances, debt or other obligations are recognized and measured in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles in both the modified and full accrual bases of accounting. Liabilities also include certain other deferred amounts that are not obligated, but are recognized and measured in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. The Board and administration, in consultation with accounting firms, will determine liabilities as needed for financial statements.

Accounts Payable

Only valid accounts payable transactions based on documented vendor invoices, receiving reports, or other approved documentation are recorded as accounts payable. Vendors and suppliers are paid as their payment terms require, taking advantage of any discounts offered. If cash flow problems exist, payments are made on a greatest dependency/greatest need basis, considering critical disbursements, including payroll and tax obligations, etc.

Use of School Credit & Debit Cards

Debit cards are only authorized with Board approval. Charter School credit cards and purchase cards shall only be issued with the formal approval of the Board and with proper justification. The cost/benefit to the school should be fully reviewed to ensure that no other method is appropriate. If credit cards are issued they should be assigned to specific school employees and should be used only for school-related expenditures.

All charges must be supported by transaction-level invoices (point-of-sale receipts) or travel reports to be eligible for payment by Charter School. Monthly credit card statements are reconciled by cardholders to point-of-sale receipts and travel reports. They are reviewed and approved monthly by appropriate supervisors.

Accrued Liabilities

Salaries, wages earned, and payroll taxes, together with professional fees, rent, and insurance costs incurred, but unpaid, are reflected as a liability when entitlement to payment occurs. The portion of any teacher, or other employee whose salaries are paid over a period different than during which work was performed, are accrued at the end of the fiscal year for which services were rendered.

Debt

Short-term debt consists of financing expected to be paid within one year of the date of the annual audited financial statements. Long-term debt consists of financing that is not expected to be repaid within one year. All short-term and long-term debt must be approved by the Board. Loan agreements approved by the Board shall be in writing and specify all applicable terms, including the purpose of the loan, the interest rate, and the repayment schedule. School administration may not enter into loan agreements without Board approval.

Net Assets

Net assets are recorded in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles applicable to special purpose governmental units. Net assets include the following:

- Unrestricted
- Restricted
- Investment in Capital Assets, net of related debt

Consistency in Cost Accounting

Practices used by the school in estimating costs in grant/contract proposals are consistent with its accounting practices used in accumulating and reporting costs. Accounting practices used by the school in accumulating and reporting actual costs are consistent with its practices used in estimating costs in its grant and contract proposals.

Procurement (Purchasing) Policies

Procurement of Goods and Services

The school shall follow outlined procurement (purchasing) procedures of the school and provisions of the state procurement code (UCA 63G-6a) and procure only those items and services that are required to perform the mission and/or fill a bona fide need.

Procurements are made using best value contracting which includes assessing the best value considering quality, performance, timing, and price. Additionally:

- Administration shall not intentionally divide a procurement purchase into one or more smaller purchases to divide an invoice or purchase order into two or more invoices or purchase orders, or to make smaller purchases over a period of time in order to circumvent any aspect of this policy or of state law;
- Exclusive contracts (requiring the purchase of needed goods or services from a single, specified seller) are not authorized except as outlined in the state procurement code (UCA 63G-6a);
- Multi-year contracts shall comply with UCA 63G-6a-1204;
- Construction and improvements shall comply with the law and administrative rules of the State of Utah and its departments or agencies and differing rules, forms or reports, not in accordance with state law and administrative rules, may not be produced by school staff or outside service providers without Board authorization;

- Administration or any agent of the school may not accept hospitality gifts, gratuities, kickbacks, or any other unlawful consideration under 63G-6a-2304.5;
- Satisfactory receipt of goods and services will be confirmed, as invoices are approved by buyers, before payment is made to a vendor.

Emergency Purchases

An "emergency purchase" is the purchase of goods or services that are so badly needed that the school will suffer financial or operational damage if they are not secured immediately. A decision to purchase may be declared in an emergency at the school's discretion and "best value" procurement guidelines must be followed. In addition, the purchase must be authorized by the Director, business manager, the Board Chair or Treasurer when available. Sound business practices shall be used and documented in all cases.

Sales Tax

Charter School is exempt from sales tax as both as governmental entity and as a charitable organization.

- The school Board and administration shall maintain the school's IRS (501c3) and public school tax exempt status by complying with government regulations at all times;
- The school administration shall follow vendor policies regarding sales tax exemption;
- As authorized, school employees or volunteers may use the school's non-profit tax exemption registration number (and Tax Commission form) only for legitimate school purchases. Authorization may be revoked when necessary;

Employee Travel within the State

Employees who travel within the state typically travel using their own personal motor vehicle or a school-rented vehicle. Employees may be reimbursed at the current (at time of travel) federal standard mileage rate (per mile), as authorized by the Board, for use of their own vehicle for business related travel. In addition, parking fees and tolls paid are reimbursable if properly supported. Employees must refill the rental vehicle with fuel prior to return. The school shall not reimburse for moving violations or parking tickets.

Employee Travel Out of State

Employees who travel out of state travel with itineraries booked through school administration, except as otherwise approved. Under certain circumstances, employees may be required to use a personal credit card for hotel and/or vehicle rental. Employees may not use public funds to pay for (or submit for reimbursement) personal expenses while traveling for the school.

Contracted Services Policies

Outside Service Providers

The utilization of outside service providers (i.e. independent contractors) and contracted personnel are sufficiently evidenced by:

- Service Agreements outlining the terms of the agreement (e.g., responsibilities work requirements, rate of compensation, and nature and amount of other expenses, if any) with the individuals or organizations providing services and details of actual services performed;
- Required IRS W-9 form, proof of authorization or licensure and liability insurance certification (among other things) are required before service is rendered or payment is made;
- Invoices or billings submitted by consultants, including sufficient detail as to the time expended and nature of the actual services performed;
- The use of a management contract for educational administrative services will clearly identify the contractor's performance requirements, including students' academic achievement (if applicable), contractor's compensation and define the school's rights to educational curricula and intellectual property developed.

The use of independent contractors is closely monitored so as not to vary from the rules of the Fair Labor Standards Act and Utah law. The contractor will:

- Be free from the school's control and direction in scheduling and performing the service, both under a contract and in fact;

- Provide a service that is outside the school's usual course of business or provide a service on a temporary basis;
- Not receive any fringe benefits as such, although their fee may include provision for fringe benefits;
- Use his or her own letterhead, supplies and materials when billing for services.

The policies contained in this document are subject to change at any time. The Board reserves the right to amend or change them at their sole discretion.

2. Specifically identifies the policy, practice, or statute violated.

Complainant: Any individual or group of individuals aggrieved by a decision or condition falling under policy, accepted practices, or state or federal law.

Organizational Structure: The hierarchy of the Roots Charter High School School for addressing all Complaints is outlined in the table below. The organizational structure varies depending on the area of alleged violation. Below is the hierarchy used for Complaint procedures in this policy:

Classroom Instruction (including 504 accommodations)	Special Education	Other Operations
1 st Classroom Teacher	1 st Special Education Teacher	1 st Directly involved party
2 nd Assistant Administrator	2 nd Special Education Director	2 nd Business Manager
3 rd School Director	3 rd School Director	3 rd School Director
4 th Board of Trustees	4 th Board of Trustees	4 th Board of Trustees

Procedure

Step I:

Any individual making a Complaint is encouraged to resolve the problem, if possible, through a discussion with the person or persons suspected of a violation, beginning at the lowest level of organizational structure.

1. Students and parents should discuss classroom concerns first with classroom teachers.

2. Employees should discuss concerns first with directly involved parties.

When individuals hear complaints or receive formal Complaints, they should make sure that Complainants or potential Complainants have first attempted in good faith to resolve problems with persons directly involved.

Step II:

In the event that the informal discussion with directly involved parties does not resolve the issue, the Complainant shall file a formal written Complaint form with the next responsible individual in the organizational structure. Complaint Forms are available from the office manager or from the school's website.

1. The Complaint must be filed within twenty (20) working days of the date the Complainant knew, or should have known, of the circumstances that precipitated the Complaint.
2. The responsible individual shall respond in writing, within five (5) working days following receipt of the Complaint.
3. If the next responsible party is the School Director, Step II does not apply, and the Complainant moves to Step III.

Step III:

If the response (decision) at Step II does not resolve the problem, the Complainant shall forward the Complaint to the School Director to initiate Step III.

1. The School Director shall investigate the complaint with the parties concerned in the Complaint within fifteen (15) working days of the Complaint having been filed at Step II.

NOTE: The School Director may choose to convene a Complaint committee of two to three additional administrators or members of the faculty as part of the investigation of a complaint and in order to recommend a decision on the issue of Complaint.

2. At the conclusion of the investigation, the School Director shall render a decision and issue a written report setting forth his/her findings and recommendations for the resolution of the Complaint within five (5) working days.
3. The Complaint shall be considered resolved if the Complainant and the Board of Trustees accept the recommendations of the School Director.
4. If no written report has been issued within the time limits set forth in "3" above, or if the Complainant shall reject the recommendations of the School Director, the Complainant shall have the right to appeal to the Board of Trustees for review of the Complaint at Step IV.

Step IV:

Complainants may appeal to the Board of Trustees for a hearing of Due Process.

1. A written request for Board of Trustees' review of the Complaint must be submitted to the Board Secretary within 10 days of the date of the School Director's report or the expiration of the time limits set forth in Step III.
2. The Board of Trustees shall review the Complaint and the School Director's report, and may hold a hearing.
3. The Board of Trustees may affirm the Director's recommendations, amend the recommendations, or affirm the recommendations in part and amend in part.
4. The Board of Trustees written decision shall be issued within 21 working days of receipt of the Complainant's written appeal by the board secretary.
5. If no written decision has been issued within the time limit set forth in "4" above or if the Complainant shall reject the decision of the Board of Trustees, the Complainant shall be free to pursue such litigation or statutory remedy as the law may provide.

Miscellaneous Provisions

1. Complainant will be informed that the time limits set forth in this policy may be modified or extended if mutually agreed by the complainant, or his/her designated representative and the School Administration. If either party wishes to change the timeline set forth in this policy, the party will request the modification(s) from the other party and both parties will be required to agree to the modification(s). The Complaint officer will issue a letter of understanding to the parties outlining the modified timeline.
2. No person shall suffer recrimination or discrimination because of participation in this Complaint procedure.
3. Employees shall be free to testify regarding any Complaint filed hereunder.
4. Confidentiality will be observed pending resolution of the Complaint.
5. A representative of his/her choice may accompany the Complainant in all stages of these proceedings.
6. The business manager will maintain records of all Complaints. The records will be kept in a separate and confidential file. Information regarding Complaints will be classified as private.
7. Gossip among school employees will not be tolerated. When employees have concerns they should follow the procedure in this policy to resolve such concerns. Gossip undermines the efforts of all employees to operate a successful school and may be grounds for disciplinary action, up to and including termination of employment.

Complaints Involving IDEA or Section 504 Accommodations

Roots Charter High School encourages parents to use the informal complaint procedure listed above when concerns involving special education arise, including allegations of due process violations. If these concerns are not adequately addressed, a formal complaint can be made using the following process, as contained in the most recent Utah State Office of Education Special Education Rules (currently December 2009).

 - (4) A proposed resolution of the problem to the extent known and available to the party at the time the complaint is received.
3. The complaint must allege a violation that occurred not more than one (1) year prior to the date that the complaint is received by Roots Charter High School, unless a longer period is reasonable because the violation is continuing or the complainant is requesting compensatory services for a violation that occurred not more than two (2) years prior to the date the complaint is received by Roots Charter High School.
 4. Roots Charter High School shall resolve the complaint within thirty (30) calendar days unless exceptional circumstances exist (e.g., delay by a complainant to provide necessary information). An extension of time shall not exceed ten (10) calendar days. Within this time limit, Roots Charter High School shall:

- a. Carry out an independent on-site investigation, if Roots Charter High School determines that such an investigation is necessary.

The appeal request must be received by the State Director of Special Education within ten (10) calendar days of the receipt of Roots Charter High School's final decision.

Appendix F: Employment of Relatives

Roots Charter High school will be consistent in all policies regarding employees, to include state and federal law. The school recognizes that nepotism or the perception of it can undermine a successful workplace. In all cases, Roots will judge and evaluate employees on objective standards of performance targeted to improve student achievement.

To avoid nepotism or the appearance of it, no family relationships (sibling, child, parent, or half- or step- sibling, child, or parent, and sibling- or parent-in-law) shall exist between lines of authority within the school. Relatives of employees or board members may exist consistent with applicable law and rule, but employees may not be hired, promoted, or otherwise placed in positions where any supervision of relatives will occur.

Appendix G: Acceptable Use Policy

The Board recognizes the need for a policy governing the use of the electronic information resources by students as outlined in Utah State Code §53A-3-422.

Students will use the Internet and other electronic information resources in an appropriate manner, abiding by the rules and regulations described in this policy.

Students who formally publish school-related information on the Internet must have proper approvals.

Students are expected to abide by generally accepted rules of network etiquette. These rules include, but are not limited to, being polite, never sending or encouraging others to send abusive messages, and never using inappropriate language.

Students may not intentionally transmit or receive material in violation of law. This includes, but is not limited to, pornographic, indecent or sexually suggestive materials, weapons, controlled substances or alcohol, or incendiary devices. A student may not be in possession of or use pornographic material on school property. Users are prohibited from posting or sending content that contains threats or is hatefully or racially, ethically or otherwise objectionable.

Students may not participate in or promote any illegal or inappropriate activities, disruptive use of the network, or activities of any kind that do not conform to the rules, regulations and policies of Jordan School District.

Students may not use the network for product advertisement or political lobbying.

Students may not reveal personal information such as names, addresses, telephone numbers, passwords, credit card numbers or social security numbers. Releasing personal information of others or that of organizations associated with the district is prohibited.

Students may not intentionally harm or destroy district data, the network, or network performance. This includes, but is not limited to, creation and introduction of computer viruses, unauthorized access to restricted systems or programs, or using the district network to illegally access other systems.

Student files, disks, documents, etc., which have been used or created with district electronic information resources are not considered private. Electronic mail transmissions are not private.

Students who violate the terms and conditions of this policy will be subject to disciplinary action, including the possibility of suspension or expulsion from school and appropriate legal action. Access to electronic information may be limited, suspended or revoked.

Roots Charter High School makes no warranties of any kind, either expressed or implied, for the electronic information resources it is providing. Roots Charter High School will not be responsible for any damages a student suffers while using these resources. These damages may include, but are not limited to, loss of data as a result of delays, employee errors or omissions, or non-deliveries or service interruptions caused by a network system. Use of information obtained by the network system is at the employee's own risk. Roots Charter High School specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy of information obtained through the electronic information resources.

Appendix H: Extracurricular Activities Policy

The Board of Trustees recognizes the importance of offering a comprehensive, balanced school program to all Roots Charter High School students. Extracurricular activities which are designed to enhance the total development of the student - mental, physical, social, and emotional - shall be available. Reasonable rules and regulations which govern the eligibility of students are established to ensure that participation in extracurricular activities does not interfere with the academic achievement of participating Roots Charter High School students.

A. Generally

Student activities are extracurricular and supplement the regular school curriculum. Student activities are voluntary and do not carry credit toward graduation. They take the form of special interest groups, honor societies, athletic teams and other extensions of classroom work. All student organizations and activities shall be under the direct supervision of the school director or a designee, and shall supplement the regular program of the school. They should be evaluated periodically to ensure that interruption of the instructional programs is avoided.

B Categories

Extracurricular activities are divided into four general categories:

1. Interscholastic and intramural athletics.
2. Activities stemming directly from classroom studies. E.g., student government, musical productions, band, dramatics, debate, the school newspaper and literary publications.
3. Activities designed to promote interest in academic achievement and/or specific subject areas.
4. Activities that promote general educational goals and are school-oriented.

C. Access to Extracurricular Activities

Access to and participation in extracurricular activities shall be open to all Roots Charter High School students as provided in state and federal regulations, and school board policy.

D. Supervision

The administration shall appoint qualified members of the faculty, or in the absence of qualified faculty members, may appoint qualified community members as a sponsor for each activity. The sponsor shall be responsible for the guidance and general supervision of the activity and shall ensure that all actions conform to school policies and regulations and state law. The supervisor will ensure that all students have been properly picked up before leaving the school grounds. School policy and fees regarding late pick up will apply for all extracurricular activities.

E. Financial Support

The school sponsored extracurricular activities named in Section B-1 and B-2 may receive partial financial support. Transportation may be provided, or the cost of transportation may be paid from appropriated funds.

The school sponsored extracurricular activities covered in Sections B-3 and B-4 should be financially self-supporting. School transportation for these activities, however, may be requested. If it cannot be provided, then vehicle transportation may be by commercial means, or by private car under regulations established for such use.

F. Parental Permission

In each instance when an organization schedules an activity after school or away from school parents will be notified and written permission obtained.
